Malcolm MacKellar

His ~~family~~ ^{parents} were not church people

He was industrious, smart; but nasty, smutty talker

He farmed near Alvinston; gave corner plot to the school.

His sister Lizzie married a sea captain -

McLaughlin: He had a big head, with a frail body.

They had two sons:

Dan ^{McK} was 9 when his mother died. He also became a sea captain; married + had two daughters. He died 1956.

Will ^{McK} was 2 when mother Lizzie died.

His Cousin Annie MacKellar (Malcolm + Catherine's daughter) cared for him till he was 5. He married ^{a nice wife} had 2 children: 1 son, 1 daughter. He was an executive at the Murphy

Co. in Detroit (building managers)

He had stomach trouble and died of cancer.

Malcolm Mack married Catherine Leitch (CLM)

She was very nice and everyone loved

They had 8 children; she (CLM) died of her cancer of the breast (1880s)

Annie Mack was a good girl, cared for Aunt Lizzie's children when Lizzie died.

Grandma L. (Livingstone?) thought her sly and did not trust her.

After Annie came to Detroit, she was a housekeeper for The Sheldon Family at Fort St. Presbyterian Church.

Annie lived in later years with sister Bessie; was always loyal to Bessie.

Laughlin worked on the boats. He caught cold; went into TB, and died young.

Archie

John

Duncan played violin.

Bessie was a schemer. She played the organ. As bookkeeper she worked in Archie's store in Glencoe; had to give up in that town after mortgaging Duncans & John's farms to finance the store & her confidence racket. Bessie came to Detroit.
