

Ancestral Lineage in Scotland, leading to William (McCree) who emigrated from Scotland to Canada in 1852, and changed the surname to McCrie

This branch of the family emigrated from Scotland to Hamilton, Ontario in 1852.

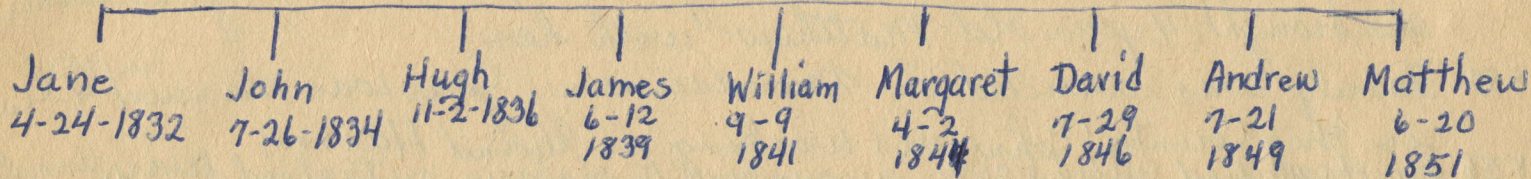

son - came to America married girl from South. they visited Hamilton, Ontario, during Civil War but lost contact with Canadian relatives afterward.
(mentioned in Aunt Jane's letter.)

Ancestral Lineage in Scotland, leading to Margaret Miller McCrie
 who emigrated from Scotland to Canada in 1852.

Family of William + Margaret (nee Miller) McCrie

William McCrie Margaret (nee Miller)

William McCREE was born in Ayrshire, Scotland, June 10, 1802, eldest in a family of four children. Received a liberal arts education, studied classical languages Latin + Greek.

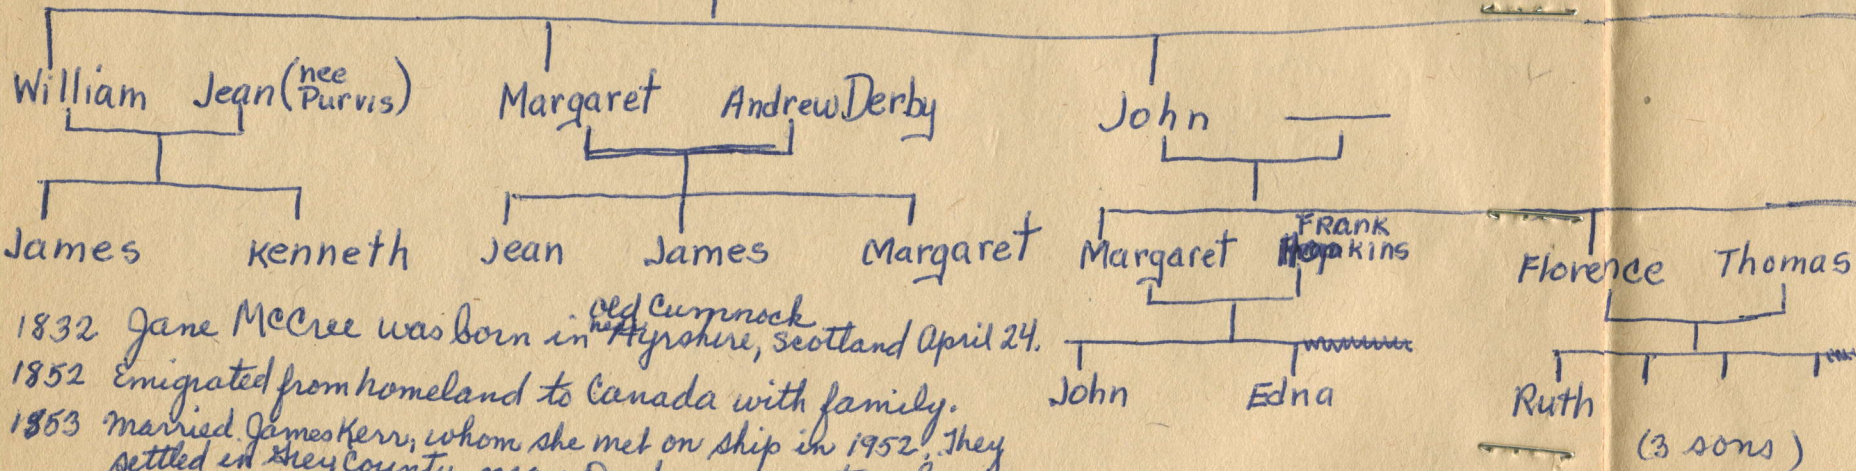

1831 He married Margaret (nee Miller). She ~~had been~~^{was} born in 1812. They lived in Kilmarnock where most of their nine children were born. William taught ~~school~~ at Woodhead School, 4 miles from Kilmarnock. They attended church in Galston.

1852 William and his family set sail in June, intending to settle in Illinois. Arrived in Hamilton, Ontario (via Quebec + Montreal) on Aug 1. Stayed in Scottish settlement there for a few years, where William served as foreman of public works. He admired Thomas McCrie, Scottish religious historian, so adopted McCrie for surname.

- 1853 Son John went to Grand Haven, ^{Michigan} where he worked for Grand Trunk Railroad as a carpenter, building bridges and railroad cars.
- 1854 William sent son Hugh to Sarnia with Boye family to locate homestead land. Hugh bought 100 acres near Mandaumin, cleared land & built a small loghouse; then sent for Mother, she brought 4 year old Matthew with her.
- 1855 Family was reunited in Mandaumin. Jane was married ^{in 1953} & living in Grey County; John was working in Grand Haven.
- 1856 Son Hugh died August 26th, succumbing to malaria or typhoid fever, unmarried.
- 1858 or 60 James went to Grand Haven to work with John, about 1865-70, William joined his brothers in Grand Haven.
- 1860 Son David went to Grey County to farm widowed sister Jane's farm.
- 1870-72 John married Eliza Wilson } Both families lived in James married Anna Anthoney } Grand Haven, Michigan
- 1872 William returned home to Mandaumin to manage the homestead farm
- 1873 Son Matthew married Roxanna Harrington in Sarnia on Dec 6, 1873
- 1876 Son Andrew married Janet Elliot on Dec. 20. in Sarnia
- 1876-80 Son David married Emily Tucker in Grey County.
- 1882 William died, ~~his~~ widow lived on homestead with ^{son} William who farmed.
- 1887 Margaret ~~was~~ died at Mandaumin on May 23
- Son William married Matilda (Tillie) Dunsmore, & they lived in the family homestead.

Family of Jane (nee McCrie) and James Kerr

James Kerr Jane (nee McCrie)

1832 Jane McCrie was born in ^{Old Cumnock} ~~High~~shire, Scotland April 24.

1852 Emigrated from homeland to Canada with family.

1853 married James Kerr, whom she met on ship in 1852. They settled in ~~the~~ County, near Durham, on stony land.

1860 James Kerr died, so David McCrie came to widowed sister Jane's home to work the farm and help with raising the young family.

1936 Jennie Kerr died in Grand Rapids April 15

1940 William Kerr died " " " April 18

James Mary Derby

Florence Thomas Bell

Janet Alex Marshall

Norman Janet John Kate Walter

Ruth

(3 sons)

Isabelle

Florence

Kenneth

(daughter)

~~Walter~~

Kenneth

Family of John and Eliza (nee Wilson) McCrie

John McCrie Eliza (nee Wilson)

William Edna D. ~~Edna D.~~ died in Infancy
"Dolly"

- 1834 John was born in Scotland July 26, eldest son, second ^{child} in family. Learned carpentry as trade in his native land.
- 1852 Came to Canada with family. They settled in Hamilton, Ontario
- 1853 John left home + went to work for Grand Trunk Railroad at Grand Haven, Michigan, as carpenter, building bridges and railroad cars.
- 1858-60 John sent for ~~his~~ brother James to come + work at carbarns. James learned carpentry as a trade there.
- 1865-70 younger brother William joined his brothers in Grand Haven; also worked in the carbarns as carpenter.
- 1870-72 John married Eliza Wilson } both families lived in Grand Haven, Mich.
James married Anna Anthony }

18— Son William was born

18— Daughter Edith D "Dolly" was born

1873 ~~son~~ ^{niece} Jennie Eliza McCrie was born to James & Anna (^{niece} Anthony) McCrie on November 19.

18— John's youngest child died in infancy

1878 nephew James Wellington McCrie was born to James & Anna McCrie on June 18.

1882 Father William McCrie died at home in Mandamin.

John & James moved their families to Detroit, Michigan, where the brothers went to work at the carbarns. John rose to foreman. Brother William had returned to family farm at Mandamin a few years earlier, and lived with his widowed mother.

1886 John's wife Eliza died in Detroit on Sept. 26. Within a year or two he married Bertha Burrows, who took care of his two children by the first marriage.

1888 In an accident at work, John was hit on the head ~~by~~^{as} a heavy beam fell. His health declined as a tumor developed.

1890 John died on January 12.

1892 ~~John~~ Son William died on June 9th widow Bertha and daughter "Dolly" continued to live in home on Commonwealth in Detroit.

1925 Daughter Dolly died on May 23, succumbing to a jaundice ailment.

1930 widow Bertha died on November 8th.

John, as the eldest son, looked after his younger brothers; routed them out of troubles and into employment. During his working years in Detroit he accumulated ~~property~~ a few properties in Downtown Detroit.

Hugh McCrie (1836-1856) Single 1836 Hugh, third of nine children, was born to William & Margaret (nee Miller) McCrie in Scotland on November 2.

as a boy he sailed as far as California, and was much impressed.

went to Liverpool and studied Law and Accountancy under guidance of his uncle, John Miller, brother of his mother.

1852 Hugh emigrated with his family to Hamilton, Ontario

1854, ^{Indiana} Father William sent son Hugh with the Boyle family to secure a homestead. ~~He~~ purchased and cleared ~~an~~ 100 acre tract near Mandaurin. Built a small log house; then sent for his mother. Mother Margaret brought 4 year old Matthew with her

1855 Family was reunited at Mandaumin

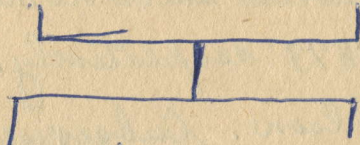

Hugh taught at Johnson's School for a while. was depended on to draw up wills, testaments, etc;

1856 Hugh contracted malaria, or typhoid fever, and died on August 23.

Family of James and Anna (nee Anthony) McCrie

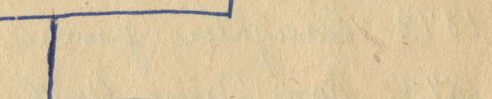

1839 James ^{Miller} McCrie was born in Scotland on June 12, fourth in family of 9 children.

James McCrie Anna (nee Anthony)

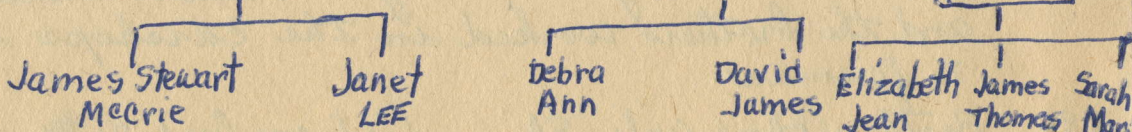

1852 Family sailed to America in June, arriving at Hamilton, Ontario on August 1st.

Jennie Eliza James Wellington McCrie Sarah (nee Livingstone)

1854 Father William ^{in June} sent older son Hugh with Boyle family to locate a Homestead. He cleared land near Mandaumin, built small log house & sent for mother & ~~youngest~~ son (Matthew H.)

William James McCrie Margaret Barry Murray (nee Maxwell) Greta Margaret Littan MAXWELL MEAD Leonard Thomas Paul Schütze JEAN Campbell

1855 Family was reunited in Mandaumin, except big sister Jane who had married & lived near Durham, and brother John who was working for Grand Trunk Railroad in Grand Haven, Mich. 1858-60 James went to join John in Grand Haven, Michigan. In the carshops where railroad cars were built, James learned the carpentry trade.

1865-70 younger brother William joined his brothers in Grand Haven, Mich.
By 1873, William had returned to family homestead near Mandaumin where he helped on farm, & aided ^{youngest} brothers Andrew & Matthew establish their homesteads before they married in 1876 and 1873 respectively.

1870-72 ^{brother} John married Eliza Wilson. Subsequently they had 3 children.
James married Anna Anthony. William died 6-9-1892
Edith D. "Dolly" died 5-23-1925
Baby died in infancy.

1873 Daughter Jennie Eliza was born on November 19.

1878 Son James Wellington was born on June 18.

1882 Father William McCrie died at the family homestead in Mandaumin about that time John and James moved their families to Detroit and the brothers worked in the carshops in Detroit. John rose to foreman.

1886 Brother John's wife Eliza died on Sept. 26th in Detroit. Within a year or two he married Bertha Burrows.

1887 Mother Margaret McCrie died at Mandaumin on May 23, about this time ^{brother} William married Matilda Dunsmore & they lived on the homestead.

1888 At work, brother John was hit on the head as a heavy beam fell. His health failed as a tumor developed, ~~and he~~ died on Jan. 12, 1890.

1892 John ~~died on January 12th~~, son William died on June 9th. Widow Bertha & daughter Dolly continued to live on Commonwealth Avenue, Detroit for many years. Dolly died 5-23-1925. Bertha died 11-8-1930

1888-93 Sometime in this period, James changed employment. He worked in a grain elevator in Detroit & rose to foreman. Later, the dust effected his lungs so he had to retire.

James and Anna kept roomers in their large home near downtown Detroit, and rented out other properties they owned in the neighborhood. Although James worked twelve or more hours a day on the job, he spent his time at home building cabinets, window seats, shirt boxes, etc. He enjoyed woodworking and used his carpentry skills to add conveniences to the household. He often read aloud to the family. His favorite physical activity was walking.

1912 James Miller McCrie died on February 29.

Widow Anna continued to live in home with daughter Jennie. They kept roomers, and Jennie was employed parttime in secretarial office work.

Son James Wellington McCrie married Sarah Livingstone in Detroit, June 25, 1912, and lived within a block of Anna's home on 14th Street. James had Business School training and was a cost accountant.

- 1914 Grandson William James McCrie was born March 23.
- 1915 Granddaughter Margaret Lillian McCrie was born April 22.
- 1917 Granddaughter Jan Campbell McCrie was born February 11.
- 1928 Anna (^{nec} Anthony) McCrie died on May 29, in her 81st year. Daughter Jennie continued to live in the old home alone.
- 1940 Granddaughter Margaret Lillian McCrie married Maxwell Melvin Mead in Detroit on Sept. 13.
- Grandson William James McCrie married Greta Maxwell on October 19th. They live in upper flat of J.W. McCrie home.

- 1940 ^{son} James Wellington McCrie died on October 19th.
Widow Sarah ~~and~~ lived at home with her youngest daughter ^{Jean}.
- 1941 Granddaughter Jean Campbell McCrie married Leonard Thomas Schutze on September 27. They ~~continued~~ ^{lived} at home with Sarah.
- 1943 Great grandson James Stewart McCrie was born to William James and Greta McCrie on March 24th in Detroit.
- 1945 Great granddaughter Elizabeth Jean Schutze was born to Jean & Leonard Schutze on June 1st, in Washington, D.C. where Len was employed during World War II on government cartography.
- 1946 Great granddaughter Janet Lee McCrie was born to William & Greta McCrie on March 28th in Detroit.
- 1946 Baby girl was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana, on March 30. She was adopted by Maxwell & Margaret Mead in 1952, eventually becoming another great granddaughter, Debra Ann Mead.

1948 Baby boy was born in Detroit, Michigan on February 5. He was placed for adoption with Maxwell + Margaret Mead within a month. He became great grandson David James Mead.

The Maxwell Mead family moved to Fort Wayne, Indiana in Sept. 1948.

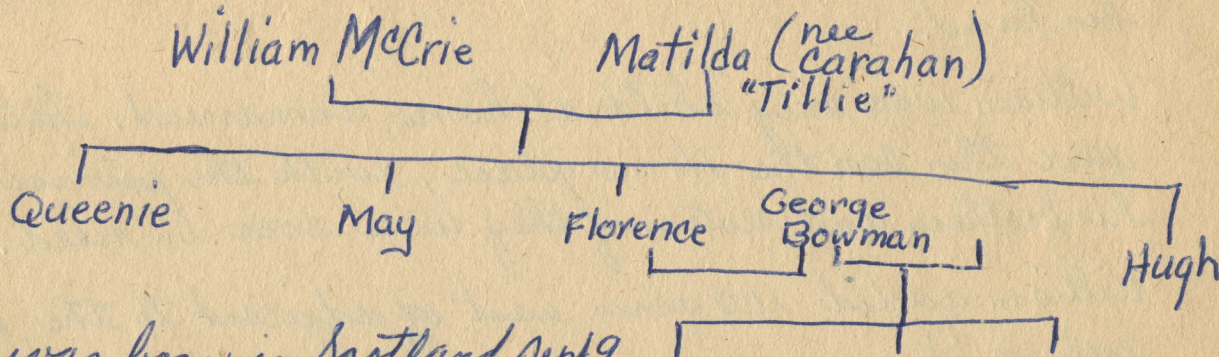

1949 Great grandson James Thomas Schutze was born to Jean + Leonard Schutze in Detroit on July 3.

1952 Jennie Eliza McCrie died on November 3 in her Detroit home.

1958 The Maxwell Mead family moved to Mishawaka, Indiana.

1959 Great granddaughter Sarah Marie Schutze was born to Jean + Leonard Schutze in Detroit on January 19th.

Family of William and Matilda (nee Carahan) McCrie
"Tillie"

1841 William was born in Scotland Sept 9, fifth child in family

1852 Emigrated to Hamilton, Ontario, with family. Left school after fight with teacher.

1854-5 ^{elderly} Brother John got him job as plumber's assistant. Drunk employer beat him up; he quit and ^{John sent him to} rejoined family at homestead in Mandanmin.
worked on farm while father was teaching school.

1865-70 William joined big Brothers John and James in Grand Haven where they all worked for the Grand Trunk Railroad. Meanwhile younger brothers Andrew and Matthew were working on farm at home.

1873 William returned home to farm, as ~~brother~~ Matthew married on December 6th. Helped Matthew locate & clear land to live on.

1876 Brother Andrew married on Dec. 20th. William helped him clear his land.

William was only child at home, unmarried. Father William gave this son the home-place, with the provision that he help his brothers and sisters if they were ever in need.

William added 100 acres east ~~of~~ adjacent to the homestead to enlarge it.

1882 Father William died at Mandaumin homestead. ~~His~~ widowed mother continued to live at home with William, who was single. James & John moved their families to Detroit from Grand Haven.

1887 Mother (Margaret) died at Mandaumin. ~~†~~

William married Matilda "Jillie" Dunsmore in 1887. They continued to live on the ^{enlarged} homestead and raised a family of 4 children.

Home was burned to the ground. William and Tillie built ~~present~~ home on the same location.

18 - Daughter Queenie was born

18 - Daughter May was born

18 - Daughter Florence was born

18 - Son Hugh was born

1918 Daughter Queenie died on November 21

1923 William died on May 20.

~~#~~ widow Tillie continued to live on farm with her daughters
May & Florence.

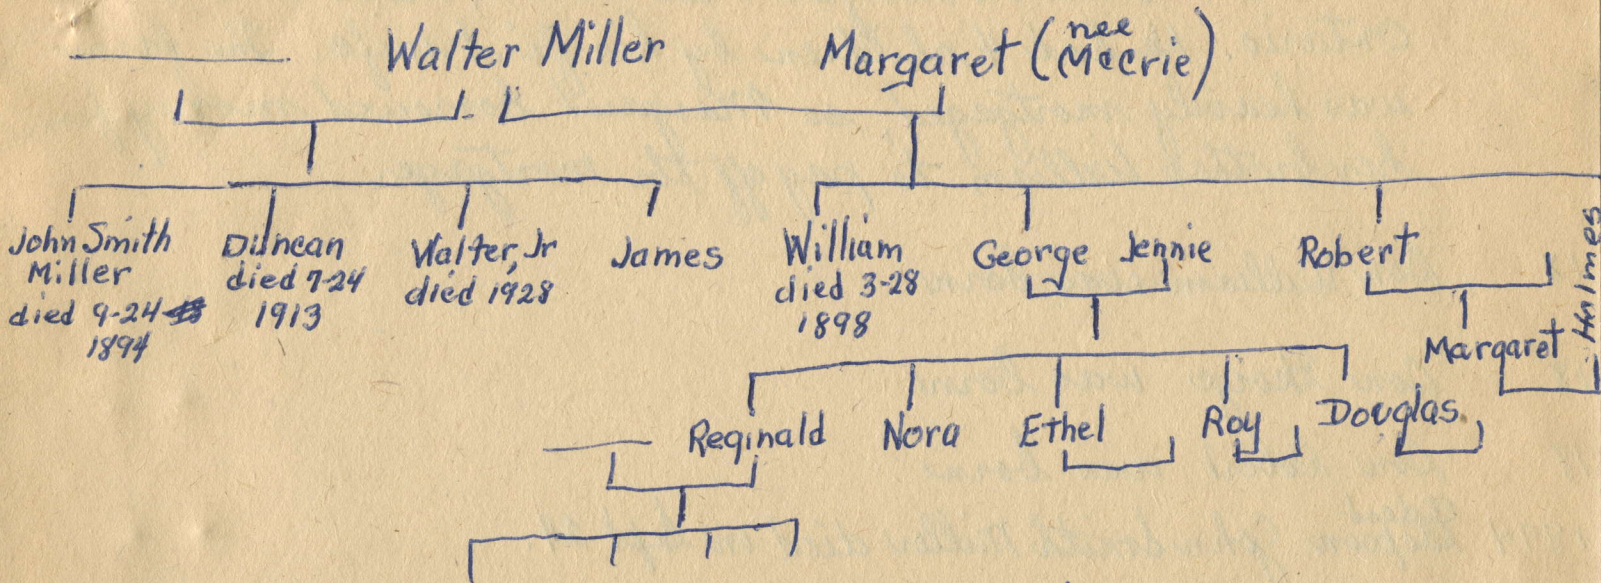

19. Son Hugh married

19 Widow Tillie died

19 - Daughter Florence married George Bowman

19 - Daughter May continues to live on the Homestead alone.

Family of Margaret (McCrie) and Walter Miller

- 1844 Margaret McCrie was born in Scotland on April 2
- 1852 She emigrated to Hamilton, Ontario, with family; attended school ^{in Hamilton}
- 1855 The family was reunited at Homestead near Mandamin mother and youngest brother had gone ahead to keep house for Hugh in log house in 1854.

18 - Margaret married a widower Walter Miller in Sarnia, and went to live on his farm at Eberts, near Chatham Ontario. He had 4 children by his first wife. The farm was heavily mortgaged, so Margaret borrowed money from her brother William to pay off the mortgage.

18 Son William was born

18 Son George was born

18 Son Robert was born

1894 ^{Eldest} Stepson John Smith Miller died on Sept 24.

1898 Eldest son William died March 28

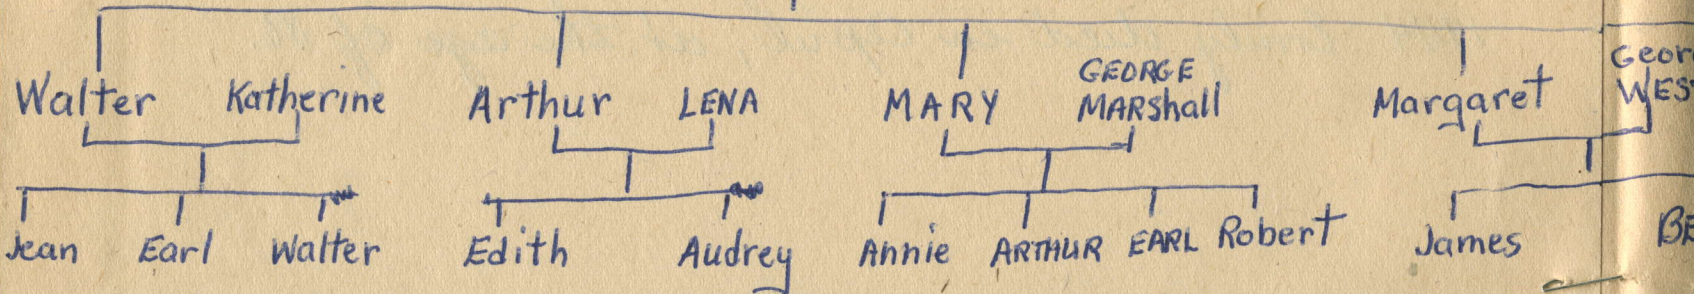

1899 Husband Walter Miller died in October

1913 Stepson Duncan died on July 24

1921 Margaret (^{mrs} McCrie) Miller died on March 5th

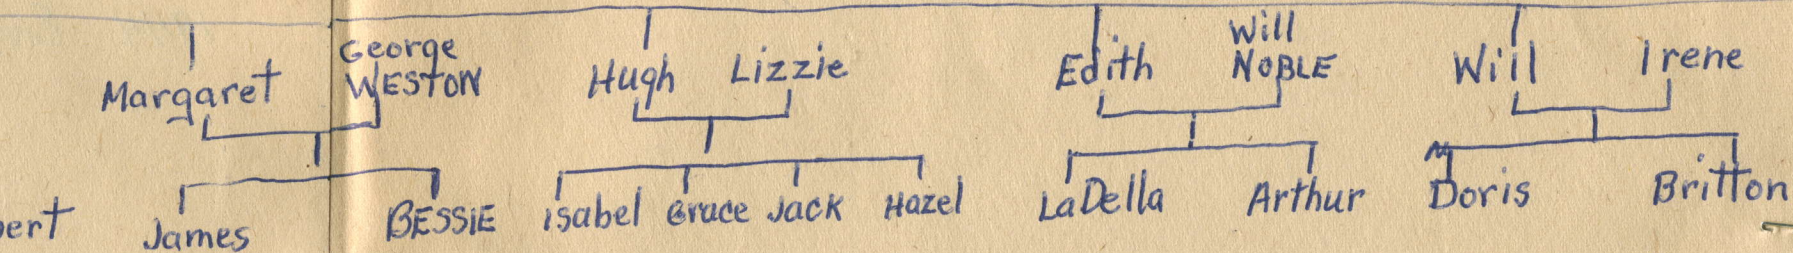

Family of David and Emily (nee Tucker) McCrie

David McCRIE Emily (nee Tucker)

- 1846 David was born in Scotland on July 29th, seventh of nine children
- 1852 Emigrated to Hamilton, Ontario, with the family. attended school
- 1855 Family was reunited at homestead near Mandamin. Big brother Hugh
- 1860 Eldest sister Jane was widowed, left with small children, and a son with brief education, he spelled phonetically, but letters are interesting and full
- 1876-80 David married Emily Tucker (born in Durham), and they settled on
- 1900^s Eldest son Walter, who worked on the railroad, persuaded his father to move
- 1910 David McCrie moved with his entire family out west and settled at Sa

erie

th of nine children.

attended school there

umin. Big brother Hugh, mother of ~~youngest~~ brother Matthew were already there.

children, and a stony farm to work. Father William sent David to Durham to help. an interesting and full of kindness.

and they settled on a stony farm just south of Durham, where their 10 children were born ded his father to move out west.

and settled at Saskatchewan Landing, 35 miles from Swift Current. Their 4 sons and 6

Lillian Sam
Willismore
Phyllis

Alice Walter
VanBuskirk
Vera Marion Florence

Jessie Jack HOLLICKY

to help.

en weuborn.

as and 6 daughters are all married and living in the Saskatchewan area.

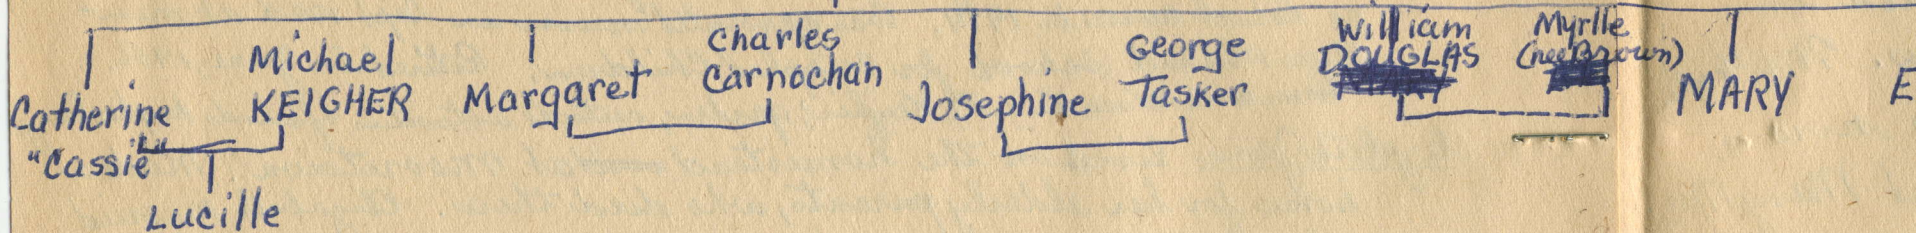

David & his family homesteaded large farms & prospered ~~with~~ wheat crops.
David and Emily moved to Victoria, British Columbia in their "golden years" and celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary there

1933 David McCrie died in January

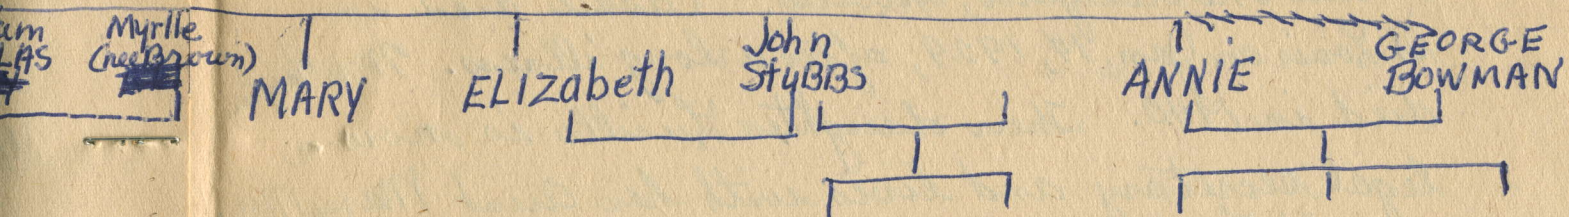

1944 Emily died in April, at the age of 86.

FAMILY OF ANDREW and JANET (nee ELLIOT) McCRIE

ANDREW McCRIE JANET (nee ELLIOT)

- 1849 Andrew McCrie was born in Scotland on July 21, eighth of nine children.
- 1852 accompanied family to Hamilton, Ontario, when they emigrated from native land.
- 1855 Family was reunited at Mandaumien homestead, and Andrew lived there.
- 1873 Helped ^{younger} brother Matthew ~~clear~~ build his home ^{before} ~~when~~ Matthew married in Dec.
- 1876 Built a home on Town Line. Married Janet Elliot on Dec. 20. They farmed a
- 1913 Sold farm and moved to Sarnia.
- 1916 ~~settled in large home at Mooretown. Daughter Elizabeth kept house for him~~ settled in large home at Mooretown. Daughter Elizabeth kept house for him
- 1941 member of St Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Mooretown.

eighth of nine children
 migrated from nativeland
 Andrew lived there until he married, helping with farm work.
 Andrew married in December
 Dec. 20, They farmed and raised their family of 7 children there.
 Elizabeth kept house for him after Janet died within the year.

Mary McCrie went to St. Louis, Mo. in ^{February} 1907, to train at the Missouri Baptist Hospital School of nursing; graduated in ^{April} 1910. Did general nursing; then worked for Health Dept. of Bd of Education in St. Louis, 1915. During world war I was army nurse, went overseas in 1917; stationed in Rouen, France; patients were from England, Scotland, Australia, New Zealand, and a few from South Africa. Returned to Bd of Education as school nurse in 1919. Was appointed nurse in Sept. 1925 at new Elias Michael School for Crippled Children. Retired in June, 1956.

Home with niece Lucille Keigher; garden, outside activities & friends keep her busy.
Elizabeth Jane lived on the homestead ~~at~~ at Mooretown. Made a home for her elderly parents, who died there. Elizabeth married John Stubbs, a widower, who had two young children (twins Gertrude & Sammie) whom Elizabeth raised. Mr. Stubbs died at Mooretown.

Annie Maude married George Bowman and they lived in Toledo, Ohio. She suffered spinal curvature and was crippled. They had three children. Annie died in Toledo on 11-30-1930.

George Bowman later married Annie's cousin Florence McCrie. She raised the three children on farm at Camlochie, Ontario, where they then lived. George Bowman ~~left~~ deserted the family.

Children:

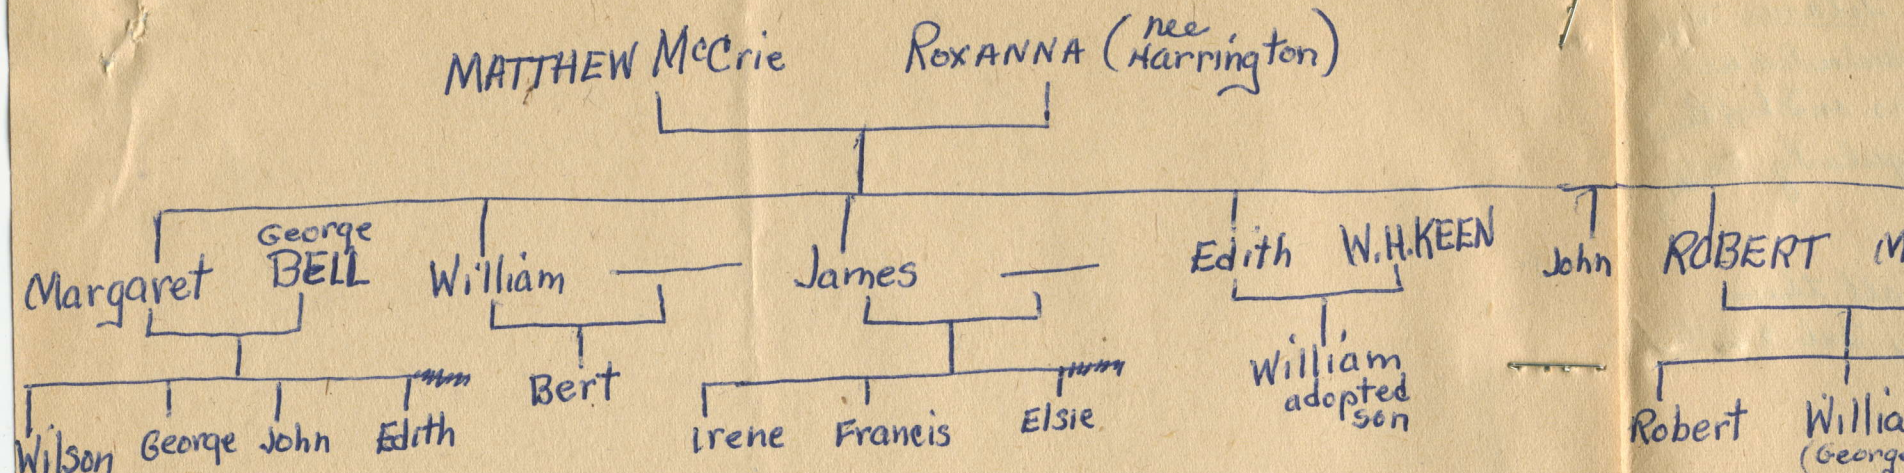

"Cassie"
Catherine Henrietta, eldest daughter, went to St. Louis, Mo. with her mother's sister "Aunt Elizabeth" Elliot to visit her great-uncle John Beattie. There she met a native of St. Louis, Michael Keigher. They married & had one daughter, Lucille. "Cassie" died in St. Louis on Jan. 14, 1929, after a long illness. Mr. Keigher died in 1940. Their daughter Lucille is now a legal secretary and lives with her Aunt Mary McCarrie in St. Louis, Mo.

Margaret Helen married Charles Carnochan and lives in Edmonton, Alberta.

Josephine Elliott was a missionary in India for 40 years. She married Dr. George P. Tasker, a missionary for 35 yrs. after retirement they lived in Penticton, British Columbia. Both are deceased.

William Douglas married Myrtle Brown. They live in Moose Jaw, Saskatchewan, Canada.

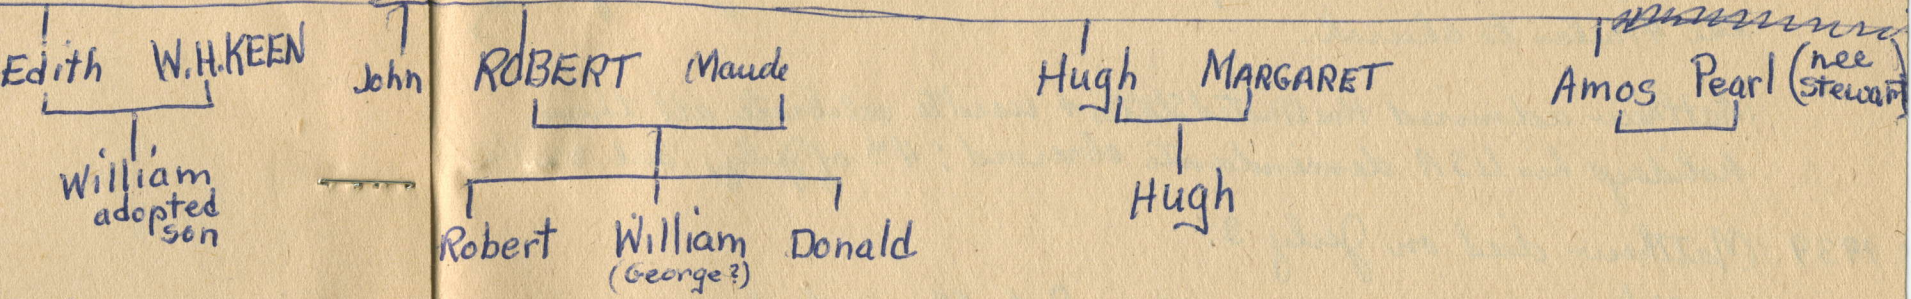

Family of MATTHEW and ROXANNA (nee Harrington) McCrie

- 1851 Matthew, youngest in family of 9 children, was born in Scotland on June 20.
- 1852 In June, Matthew accompanied the family to Hamilton, Ontario, arriving Aug. 1st.
- 1854 Went to family Homestead near Mandaumin with mother, where big brother Hugh
- 1855 Family was reunited at new home in Mandaumin.
- 1856 Brother Hugh died August 23, after contracting Malaria or typhoid fever.
- 1857 Started education at little log schoolhouse in Sarnia. Helped on farm until
- 1873 Matthew Married Roxanna ~~McCrie~~ Harrington, native of York County with New England ancestry
 there they raised family of 8 children

(Harrington) McCrie

(Harrington)

as born in Scotland on June 20.
 Milton, Ontario, arriving Aug. 1st.

with mother, where his brother Hugh was clearing land & had built a small log house.

min
 malaria or typhoid fever.

Sarnia. Helped on farm until he married.

York County with New England ancestry, and they settled on farm he purchased in near Sarnia.

Later, Oil was discovered on the farm, so he profitted from that.

1912 Son James was drowned on April 14th, when the Titanic ^{sank} and Roxanna died. Matthew lived in small concrete house on Lakeshore Road near ^{Division}. Matthew was interested in Education & served 12 yrs. on School Board. was deacon in Sarnia Baptist Church & attended regularly, walking the 4 miles to church.

Matthew admired the United States & used to celebrate all their holidays his USA descendants observed: 4th of July, Feb. 22, etc.

1939 Matthew died on July 3.

1941 ^{youngest} Son Amos died in Detroit on July 23. He had served in World War I, and was wounded. ~~He~~ He was an insurance agent for Prudential Insurance. After a lengthy illness, death resulted from ^{abdominal} cancer.