

TABERNACLE SERIES

A special series of messages on the Tabernacle begins at the evening service today. The construction and articles of furniture will be illustrated with colored lantern slides. By this method, a child will be able to understand the marvelous typical teachings of the tabernacle. Explanatory Scripture verses will be thrown on the curtain and also the words of appropriate hymns. The messages will be evangelistic. Tell others and pray for the blessing of God.

'T WAS SAID

"If we would be successful winners of souls we must be moved with compassion for the lost & the perishing. We must sympathize with men in their sorrows & troubles, if we would hope to gain their affections and to do them good."

"It is worth living a life to help one man to his feet."

"My eye is not on the density of the fog, but on the living God, who controls every circumstance of my life."

THE DEATH OF MRS. WILLIAM LUNDY

"A moment more and I may be
Caught up in glory, Lord, with Thee;
And raptured sight! Thy face to see
For evermore."

In the manner of these words by Dr. Lewis Sperry Chafer, occurred the Home-going of Mrs. Lundy, one of our older well-known members, on Saturday evening January 22, 1938. On Wednesday previous, she was assisting our women with their Ladies Aid sewing. All day Saturday, she was about the home as usual, until near the supper hour when she passed away quietly without her family being aware of it.

Mrs. Lundy was born in a God-fearing Highland home, near Alviston, Ont., July 1, 1869 - the daughter of John and Sarah Livingston, and was one of our few remaining Gaelic speaking members. She attended the church in Dr. Dickie's time and was received into membership Nov. 4, 1896, under Dr. Scott, since which time she has been a devout, faithful and helpful member. She is survived by her husband, Mr. Lundy; her son, Clarence; and two sisters, Mrs. Flora Groundwalter of Cleveland, Ohio, and Mrs. James McCrie of Detroit, to whom her church extends sincere Christian sympathy.--J.D. Murray, Clerk

Help me to live each day as though it were my last,
And thus be rid of vain regrets when life is past;
May I so love and serve my Lord while here I roam,
That when the Father calls, 'twill be just "going home."
