Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

1-William Estall.

General Notes: Viewed William and Leah's marriage record at London Metropolitan Archives, in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish register. Their marriage is also listed in the IGI. William was a tallow chandler, with the London Apprenticeship Abstracts 1442-1850 stating:

1739 Estall John, son of William, Whitechapel, Middlesex, tallow chandler, to John Perry, 6 Jun 1739, Tallow Chandlers' Company

We believe this is referring to William as the tallow chandler arranging an apprenticeship for his son John.

William married Leah Holt on 10 Apr 1721 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex. They had two children: Rebecca and John.

2-Rebecca Estall was born in Aug 1722 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 26 Aug 1722 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Rebecca is in the IGI with her parents, under 'Rebecca Ester'.

2-John Estall was born in Jan 1724 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 5 Jan 1724 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, died in Mar 1810 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex aged 86, and was buried on 23 Mar 1810 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Have found John's birth record in the St Mary Whitechapel Register, under John Estell, baptised 5 Jan 1724 (birth date not available). He's listed as the son of William and Leah, White's Yard, Rose Mary Lane. Note that White's Yard is where John has his own children with Mary 20 years later. Need to keep searching for his marriage record, which we have not been able to find in the St Mary's register. But the register does show multiple children being born to John and Mary, in accordance with the birth dates listed in the IGI (as well as other children not specifically identified as John and Mary's children in the IGI). John is a tallow chandler, with the London Apprenticeship Abstracts 1442-1850 stating:

1739 Estell John, son of William, Whitechapel, Middlesex, tallow chandler, to John Perry, 6 Jun 1739, Tallow Chandlers' Company

We believe this is referring to William, John's father, as the tallow chandler arranging an apprenticeship for this John.

We've now seen John's death record, at age 87, at ancestry.co.uk London, England, Deaths and Burials, 1813-1980. He died just two weeks after his wife of old age and was living at White's Yard at the time.

John married Mary - about 1745 in Stepney, London, Middlesex. Mary was born circa 1726, died in Mar 1810 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex aged 84, and was buried on 8 Mar 1810 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex. They had 12 children: John, Elizabeth, William, Richard, Mary, Susannah, Samuel, George, Rebecca, James H., Thomas and Edward.

3-John Estall was born in 1746 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 27 Apr 1746 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, died in Jan 1792 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex aged 46, and was buried on 5 Jan 1792 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Viewed John's baptism record, son of John and Mary of White's Yard, in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish record at London Metropolitan Archives. Birth and marriage record also in IGI. We also saw the marriage record of John and Martha in the St Leonard Shoreditch record at the LMA. The record does not specify their parents and a witness to the wedding was James Estall who we have not yet identified.

This marriage might not be correctly placed though, because there is a baptism record for an Ann Estall, born 1769, son of John and Ann of White's Yard. Perhaps our John married an Ann instead of a Martha, but our best guess at present is that John's wife's name was either 'Martha Ann' or 'Ann Martha' and that this is the same John.

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

We've seen John's burial record in the parish registers at London Metropolitan Archives. He was identified as being age 48 and was still at White's Yard. Cause of death was listed as 'mortification'.

John married Martha Goodin, daughter of Thomas Goodin and Jane -, on 17 Jan 1769 in St Leonard Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex. Martha was born in 1748 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 10 Oct 1748 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex. They had two children: Ann and Jane.

4-Ann Estall was born in 1769 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 14 Jul 1769 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Baptism record at www.findmypast.com, with mother's name identified as 'Ann'. We've also seen it in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Our guess is that her mother was 'Martha Ann' because they're living at White's Yard. We've also seen Ann's marriage record at ancestry.co.uk.

Name: Ann Estall
Spouse Name: Joseph Foley
Record Type: Marriage
Event Date: 24 May 1790
Parish: Christ Church, Spitalfields
County: Middlesex
Borough: Tower Hamlets

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

Ann married Joseph Foley on 24 May 1790 in Christ Church Spitalfields, Stepney, London, Middlesex. Joseph died circa 1800. They had six children: Joseph, Joseph, Ann, John, Joseph and Rachel.

5-Joseph Foley was born in 1790 in Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 7 Nov 1790 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, died in Nov 1791 in Stepney, London, Middlesex aged 1, and was buried on 3 Nov 1791 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We've seen Joseph's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was born at White's Yard. We've also seen his death record at ancestry.co.uk. He died aged 1 of smallpox.

5-Joseph Foley was born in 1792 in Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 1 Apr 1792 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, and died before 1799 in Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We've seen Joseph's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was born at White's Yard. We assume he died at a young age because a later sibling is named Joseph.

5-Ann Foley was born in 1795 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 25 Feb 1795 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We've seen Ann's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. She was born on Rosemary Lane.

5-John Foley was born on 24 Mar 1797 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 16 Apr 1797 in St George in the East, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We've seen John's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Although the baptism record says that he is the son of John rather than Joseph, we believe this is an error in the register. Like his brother Joseph born in 1799, John's father is identified as a blacksmith living at Artichoke Hill.

5-Joseph Foley was born on 7 Feb 1799 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 3 Mar 1799 in St George in the East, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We've seen Joseph's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was born at Artichoke Hill.

5-Rachel Foley was born on 31 Dec 1800 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 25 Jan 1801 in St George in the East, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We've seen Rachel's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. She was born at Artichoke Hill.

4-Jane Estall was born in 1774 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 22 Apr 1774 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw Jane's baptism entry in the St Mary Whitechapel parish register at London Metropolitan Archives, daughter of John and Martha at Rosemary Lane (street that White's Yard is on). It would appear that John and Martha continued to live at or near his parents, John and Mary, who also lived at White's Yard.

3-Elizabeth Estall was born in Dec 1747 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 9 Dec 1747 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw Elizabeth's baptism record in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish register at London Metropolitan Archives, daughter of John and Mary, living at White's Yard. Her baptism entry was spelled 'Esthall'.

3-William Estall was born in Nov 1749 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 12 Nov 1749 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw William's baptism record, son of John and Mary at White's Yard on Rosemary Lane, in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. His name was spelled 'Estill'. His wife and children appear in the IGI. William is referenced in his brother Edward's will. He is identified as a weaver in his son William's baptism record.

William's marriage record in the IGI identifies that he married 'Mary' Bay. But we've now seen the marriage record in the St Botolph Bishopsgate register at Guildhall. It mistakenly reads on the top line that it's 'Mary' Bay, but the body of the record and her signature clearly say 'Sarah'. We've now seen it in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, under 'Sarah Bay'. We do know that in the early censuses (1841+) Bethnal Green is full of Bay family weavers. Witnesses to the wedding are John Bay and William Bay. We know that a John Bay had a Sarah in 1751 in Bethnal Green and have connected him as the father of our Sarah. We'll keep looking for more evidence that these are the correct parents.

BMD Index & Church Records:

Name: William Estall

William married Sarah Bay, daughter of John Bay and Elizabeth Marie Planque, on 9 Dec 1770 in St Botolph Bishopsgate, London City, London. Sarah was born on 22 Aug 1751 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 24 Aug 1751 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, died in Jul 1829 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 77, and was buried on 26 Jul 1829 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. They had three children: William, John and Samuel William.

4-William Estall was born on 31 May 1771 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 9 Jun 1771 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died on 31 Oct 1819 in Gibraltar Row, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 48.

General Notes: We saw William's birth record in the St Matthew, Bethnal Green, parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. He is identified as being the son of William, weaver, and Sarah. In his children's birth records, this William is also identified as a weaver. Parents and marriage shown in IGI, along with some of the children. We've seen William and Mary's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, under 'Mary Donneston'. Witnesses were John Bay and Joseph Gay.

Note that, according to the parish register index, this William is the first Estall to be baptised at St Matthew, Bethnal Green, a parish newly established in 1746. Living at Cabbage Court when son William was born in 1798. We believe he was at 13 Little Bacon Street not later than 1809. We think this is the William listed in the Gibraltar Row Dissident's Cemetery burial register, aged 49 in 1819.

William married Mary Ann Dennington, daughter of William Dennington and Ann Walker, on 12 Feb 1793 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. Mary was born on 30 Mar 1770 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 15 Apr 1770 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died on 6 Sep 1837 in Gibraltar Row, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 67. Another name for Mary was Mary Donnerton. They had nine children: Mary Ann, Elizabeth Ann, William John, John Samuel, Sarah Ann, William, Richard Alexander, Joseph Lawrence and Ann Martha.

5-Mary Ann Estall was born on 17 Sep 1794 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 12 Oct 1794 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died Q4 1863 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 68.

General Notes: We believe that Mary Ann is the daughter of William and Mary. We know her birthdate and place of birth from where she appears in the 1851 and 1861 censuses with her husband Thomas. We've placed her with these parents because of her name match to her mother, date of birth (and the lag between William and Mary's marriage and the birth of their daughter Elizabeth), place of birth and that Mary Ann's husband is part of the Bethnal Green weaving community. We've ruled out other descendants of John and Mary (her grandparents) based on the birth date and location information. Now we've found a baptism record for Mary Ann 'Hester' who we believe to be this Mary Ann, identified as the daughter of William (weaver) and Mary. We've seen her marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Death record in BMD.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD under 'Gilbert'. Lydia was born very near to the time that Mary Ann Estall, who we believe to be Lydia's grandmother, died, hence the 'Estall' middle name. With parents in 1871. With parents in 1881, under 'Lidia Gilbert'. Marriage in BMD, under 'Lydia Estalle Gilbert'. We've now seen Lydia's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, under 'Sydin Estelle Gilbert'. It was witnessed by Lydia's father and her sister Priscilla Bott. Lydia is widowed in 1891, with her age incorrectly indexed as 16 rather than 26. She is with her two children, staying with her brother Alfred and his family. Both Alfred and Lydia are working as boot casters.

We haven't found her second marriage record yet, but in 1901 we see Lydia with her sons from her first marriage, her second husband Walter and their children. With husband and children in 1911. The 1911 census says that Walter and Lydia were married circa 1892.

9-Stanley Victor Gilbert was born Q4 1922 in Limehouse, London, Middlesex, died on 17 Oct 1946 in Singapore aged 24, and was buried in Kranji War Cemetery, Singapore.

General Notes: Birth and marriage records in BMD. Stanley died in WWII and is commemorated on the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website at www.cwgc.org:

Name: GILBERT, STANLEY VICTOR
Initials: S V
Nationality: United Kingdom
Rank: Sergeant
Regiment/Service: Royal Air Force
Volunteer Reserve Age: 23
Date of Death: 17/10/1946
Service No: 1883201
Additional information: Son of Edith Gilbert; husband of Doris Gilbert, of Dagenham, Essex.
Casualty Type: Commonwealth War Dead
Grave/Memorial Reference: 27. D. 1.
Cemetery: KRANJI WAR CEMETERY
Country: Singapore
Locality: unspecified

Visiting Information: The cemetery is constructed on a hill with the means of access being via three flights of steps, rising over four metres from the road level, which makes wheelchair access to this site impossible. Location Information: Kranji War Cemetery is 22 kilometres north of the city of Singapore, on the north side of Singapore Island overlooking the Straits of Johore. It is located just to the West of the Singapore-Johore road (Bukit Timah Expressway) on Woodlands Road, just to the south of the crossroads with Turf Club Avenue and Kranji Road. There is a short approach road from the main road. The Cemetery is known locally as Kranji Memorial and one must be sure of the address before boarding a taxi as most taxi drivers do not know the Cemetery. There are also bus stops on the main road facing the Cemetery. The Kranji MRT (train) terminal is a short distance from the Cemetery, approximately 10 to 15 minutes away by foot. A previous visitor has advised us that a small map of the route can be obtained from the MRT ticket office.

Historical Information: Before 1939, the Kranji area was a military camp and at the time of the Japanese invasion of Malaya, it was the site of a large ammunition magazine. On 8 February 1942, the Japanese crossed the Johore Straits in strength, landing at the mouth of the Kranji River within two miles of the place where the war cemetery now stands. On the evening of 9 February, they launched an attack between the river and the causeway. During the next few days fierce fighting ensued, in many cases hand to hand, until their greatly superior numbers and air strength necessitated a withdrawal. After the fall of the island, the Japanese established a prisoner of war camp at Kranji and eventually a hospital was organised nearby at Woodlands. After the reoccupation of Singapore, the small cemetery started by the prisoners at Kranji was developed into a permanent war cemetery by the Army Graves Service when it became evident that a larger cemetery at Changi could not remain undisturbed. Changi had been the site of the main prisoner of war camp in Singapore and a large hospital had been set up there by the Australian Infantry Force. In 1946, the graves were moved from Changi to Kranji, as were those from the Buona Vista prisoner of war camp. Many other graves from all parts of the island were transferred to Kranji together with all Second World War graves from Saigon Military Cemetery in French Indo-China (now Vietnam), another site where permanent maintenance could not be assured. The Commission later brought in graves of both World Wars from Bidadari Christian Cemetery, Singapore, where again permanent maintenance was not possible. There are now 4,461 Commonwealth casualties of the Second World War buried or commemorated at KRANJI WAR CEMETERY. More than 850 of the burials are unidentified. The Chinese Memorial in Plot 44 marks a collective grave for 69 Chinese servicemen, all members of the Commonwealth forces, who were killed by the Japanese during the occupation in February 1942. First World War burials and commemorations number 64, including special memorials to three casualties known to have been buried in civil cemeteries in Saigon and Singapore, but whose graves could not be located. Within Kranji War Cemetery stands the SINGAPORE MEMORIAL, bearing the names of over 24,000 casualties of the Commonwealth land and air forces who have no known grave. Many of these have no known date of death and are accorded within our records the date or period from when they were known to be missing or captured. The land forces commemorated by the memorial died during the campaigns in Malaya and Indonesia or in subsequent captivity, many of them during the construction of the Burma-Thailand railway, or at sea while being transported into imprisonment elsewhere. The memorial also commemorates airmen who died during operations over the whole of southern and eastern Asia and the surrounding seas and oceans. The SINGAPORE (UNMAINTAINABLE GRAVES) MEMORIAL, which stands at the western end of the Singapore Memorial, commemorates more than 250 casualties who died in campaigns in Singapore and Malaya, whose known graves in civil cemeteries could not be assured maintenance and on religious grounds could not be moved to a war cemetery. The SINGAPORE CREMATION MEMORIAL, which stands immediately behind the Singapore Memorial, commemorates almost 800 casualties, mostly of the Indian forces, whose remains were cremated in accordance with their religious beliefs. The SINGAPORE CIVIL HOSPITAL GRAVE MEMORIAL stands at the eastern end of the Singapore Memorial. During the last hours of the Battle of Singapore, wounded civilians and servicemen taken prisoner by the Japanese were brought to the hospital in their hundreds. The number of fatalities was such that burial in the normal manner was impossible. Before the war, an emergency water tank had been dug in the grounds of the hospital and this was used as a grave for more than 400 civilians and Commonwealth servicemen. After the war, it was decided that as individual identification of the dead would be impossible, the grave should be left undisturbed. The grave was suitably enclosed, consecrated by the Bishop of Singapore, and a cross in memory of all of those buried there was erected over it by the military authorities. The 107 Commonwealth casualties buried in the grave are commemorated on the Singapore Civil Hospital Grave Memorial. Kranji War Cemetery and the Singapore Memorial were designed by Colin St Clair Oakes. Adjoining Kranji War Cemetery is KRANJI MILITARY CEMETERY, a substantial non-world war site of 1,378 burials, created in 1975 when it was found necessary to remove the graves of servicemen and their families from Pasir Panjang and Ulu Pandan cemeteries.

Country: Belgium

Locality: Comines-Warneton, Hainaut

Visiting Information: The sounding of the Last Post takes place at the memorial on the first Friday of every month at 7 p.m. The Panel Numbers quoted at the end of each entry relate to the panels dedicated to the Regiment served with. In some instances where a casualty is recorded as attached to another Regiment, his name may alternatively appear within their Regimental Panels. Please refer to the on-site Memorial Register Introduction to determine the alternative panel numbers if you do not find the name within the quoted Panels.

Location Information: The Ploegsteert Memorial stands in Berks Cemetery Extension, which is located 12.5 Kms south of Ieper town centre, on the N365 leading from Ieper to Mesen (Messines), Ploegsteert and on to Armentieres. From Ieper town centre the Rijselsestraat runs from the market square, through the Lille Gate (Rijselpoort) and directly over the crossroads with the Ieper ring road. The road name then changes to the Rijselseweg (N336). 3.5 Kms along the N336 lies a fork junction with the N365. The N365, which forms the right hand fork, leads to the town of Mesen. The Cemetery lies 3 Kms beyond Mesen on the right hand side of the N365, and opposite Hyde Park Corner Royal Berks Cemetery.

Historical Information: The PLOEGSTEERT MEMORIAL commemorates more than 11,000 servicemen of the United Kingdom and South African forces who died in this sector during the First World War and have no known grave. The memorial serves the area from the line Caestre-Dranoutre-Warneton to the north, to Haverskerque-Estaires-Fournes to the south, including the towns of Hazebrouck, Merville, Bailleul and Armentieres, the Forest of Nieppe, and Ploegsteert Wood. The original intention had been to erect the memorial in Lille. Those commemorated by the memorial did not die in major offensives, such as those which took place around Ypres to the north, or Loos to the south. Most were killed in the course of the day-to-day trench warfare which characterised this part of the line, or in small scale set engagements, usually carried out in support of the major attacks taking place elsewhere. BERKS CEMETERY EXTENSION, in which the memorial stands, was begun in June 1916 and used continuously until September 1917. At the Armistice, the extension comprised Plot I only, but Plots II and III were added in 1930 when graves were brought in from Rosenberg Chateau Military Cemetery and Extension, about 1 Km to the north-west, when it was established that these sites could not be acquired in perpetuity. Rosenberg Chateau Military Cemetery was used by fighting units from November 1914 to August 1916. The extension was begun in May 1916 and used until March 1918. Together, the Rosenberg Chateau cemetery and extension were sometimes referred to as 'Red Lodge'. Berks Cemetery Extension now contains 876 First World War burials. HYDE PARK CORNER (ROYAL BERKS) CEMETERY is separated from Berks Cemetery Extension by a road. It was begun in April 1915 by the 1st/4th Royal Berkshire Regiment and was used at intervals until November 1917. Hyde Park Corner was a road junction to the north of Ploegsteert Wood. Hill 63 was to the north-west and nearby were the 'Catacombs', deep shelters capable of holding two battalions, which were used from November 1916 onwards. The cemetery contains 83 Commonwealth burials of the First World War and four German war graves. The cemetery, cemetery extension and memorial were designed by Harold Chalton Bradshaw, with sculpture by Gilbert Ledward. The memorial was unveiled by the Duke of Brabant on 7 June 1931.

two brothers and brother-in-law worked with their father in L.F. Deardorff and Sons Co., makers of the Deardorff view camera. Mr. Deardorff began working in the Chicago family-owned business, which originally was a camera repair shop, when he was 17. His father, Laben F. Deardorff, designed and started making the handcrafted mahogany cameras in 1923.

Many photographers such as the late Ansel Adams used the cameras, which also have seen service at the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York, the Chicago Police Department Crime Lab and the Library of Congress. Mr. Deardorff, who never finished high school, began in the business by grinding lenses. He became president of the company in 1955 when his father died, and was the firm's driving force for decades until he retired at age 84. Mr. Deardorff was honored several times by the American Association of Professional Photographers.

Meribelle Allen, Mr. Deardorff's daughter, said her father enjoyed working with young people at Brookfield Methodist Church in Brookfield, where he was a member for several years. For the last six years, Mr. Deardorff lived in Raymondville. Mr. Deardorff is survived by his wife, Marion; two daughters, Meribelle Allen and Alice Tozier; 12 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren. Services were Saturday.

She is listed as the daughter of William and Mary, both of the St Matthew Bethnal Green parish. Baptised 8 Aug 1803. Sion Chapel is a non-conformist (non-Anglican) church. We're not sure why she was baptised there instead of St Matthews like the other children, but we believe that some part of William and Sarah's descendants were non-conformist but normally registered in the regular parish church as these were the only officially recognised birth, marriage and death records. Their banns were at both St Dunstan & All Saints and Christ Church Spitalfields. Banns and marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. With husband and children in 1841. Death record in BMD.

They had one son: William Robert.

7-William Robert Estall was born on 6 Jun 1871 in Islington, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 9 Jul 1871 in St Mary, Islington, London, Middlesex, and died on 31 May 1962 in Montreal, Quebec, Canada aged 90.

General Notes: We've seen William's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was born at Ashburton Grove. Details come from R. Estall, son of Henry Martyn. Both William and Jane are buried in Grace Church Cemetery, Mascouce, Quebec.

In 1891 census, William is living with his mother as a Coppersmith Apprentice. Also in 1901 census with his mother. When his grandmother, Ann Mary Estall (nee Ardouin), passed away at the French Protestant Hospital, he picked up her effects (mainly her documents) from the hospital. With wife and children in 1911, ventilating engineer.

Staying with a great aunt and uncle in 1881, while widowed mother is at work as a servant. The Ivey's raised Ann (William's mother), as Lucy Ivey was formerly Lucy Hellen Hobbs, presumably the sister of Ann Isabella's father. Records from 1881 census:

William married Jane Louisa James, daughter of Charles James and Martha Blake, on 23 Nov 1901 in St Barnabas, Bexhill, Sussex. Jane was born on 19 Nov 1871 in Kentish Town, St Pancras, London, Middlesex and died on 25 Sep 1966 in Montreal, Quebec, Canada aged 94. They had five children: Ivey Isabelle, Henry Martyn, Rowland Ardouin, Norman Ardouin and Frank Ardouin.

8-Ivey Isabelle Estall was born on 5 Apr 1903 in Teddington, Richmond Upon Thames, London, Surrey, was baptised on 23 May 1903 in St Mark, Teddington, Richmond Upon Thames, London, Surrey, and died in Jul 2005 in Montreal, Quebec, Canada aged 102.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. We've seen Ivey's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk., under 'Ivey Isabella'. With parents in 1911. This census record is worth looking at, as little Ivey (aged 7 at the time) has clearly been allowed to fill in her own name and that of brother Henry in her very nice joined up writing! We also know her parents were William and Jane because we have records of her as a missionary referencing 'W.R. Estall' as 'friend' and the name 'Ivey' comes from the aunt and uncle who raised Ivey's mother, Ann Isabella Hobbs. Ivey can be seen on passenger lists in 1946 (India to USA) and 1957 (India to England to Canada), listed as a missionary.

We believe I. I. Estall, listed in the Quebec phone book from at least 1995-2000, is Ivey Isabella. It appears that she lived to the age of 102!

General Notes: We have the birth record for Rowland's brother Frank, showing William Robert and Jane Louisa James as the parents. The 'Ardouin Estall' name comes from them being descendants of Ann Ardouin, who died shortly before Rowland and his brothers were born. We've now seen Rowland's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was born at Kingston Villa, Norwood Road. With parents in 1911. Rowland went to Canada with his parents and siblings.

In 1926, we see Rowland on a ship from Tampico, Mexico to New York, we believe as a wireless operator with the Canadian Navy.

In 1936, we see Rowland crossing from Canada to the U.S. on a short visit as an insurance agent. He identifies his wife as Stella Estall, Riverside Drive, Montreal.

In 1949, Rowland is in Canada, as described on the website www.ca.bahai.org. He is said to be an insurance broker from Montreal, Quebec, and he is part of a group who present an Act to the Senate of Canada requesting Incorporation of the National Assembly of the Baha'i of Canada, a religious group.

5-Joseph Lawrence Estall was born on 9 Dec 1808 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 15 Jan 1809 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died on 10 Apr 1875 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex aged 66.

General Notes: We saw Joseph's birth record, son of William and Mary, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. Shown with parents in IGI. Silk Weaver/Labourer. We've seen Joseph and Sarah's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. This family is in the 1841 census, but the indexed name is spelled 'Estell'. The image is clearly 'Estall'. According to son Thomas' baptism record, they were living at 41 Swan St in 1846 (brother Richard was at 5 Swan St at about the same time). Rest of children can be seen in 1851 and 1861 censuses. In 1861, he was living at 141 Parkfield, Tower Hamlets. His sons, Ambrose (b. 1844) and Joseph (b. 1833) were living in the next two houses with their families. On the 1871 Census he was an inmate of the Whitechapel Union Workhouse. In the Register of the French Protestant Hospital, Hackney, where several of our relatives spent their last years, we read an entry:

' Joseph Estall, applicant. Feb 6 1875. A letter was read from the Clerk of the Whitechapel Union in reference to Joseph Estall an inmate of the workhouse stating that Joseph Estall being descended from a French Refugee he was desirous of becoming a Petitioner for admission into the French Hospital and wished to be informed what steps were necessary for such purpose. The Assistant Secretary was directed to inform the Clerk of the Whitechapel Union that Joseph Estall being an inmate of the workhouse he was thereby disqualified from becoming a petitioner.'

As the Hospital was likely a much nicer place to spend your last years, it seems sad that he was disqualified on this basis. We don't yet know which French refugee he was referring to, but at present we believe his wife was of French descent although he appeared to be referring to ancestors rather than his wife.

Cousin John has now sent us Joseph's death certificate. He died 10 Apr 1875, only two months after applying for admission to the French Hospital.

General Notes: Baptism record in parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, although not yet indexed. Joseph was born at New Inn Yard. Silk Weaver. According to son Joseph's baptism record in 1854, Joseph was a gingerbread baker living at 10 Wolverley St. According to daughter Elizabeth's death certificate in 1855, Joseph was a general dealer living at Queen Anne St. According to daughter Elizabeth Sarah's baptism record in 1856, he was a hawker living at 10 Cutwell St. Note that in 1861 census, Joseph's birthdate is listed as 1841 rather than 1833. In the 1861 census, Joseph is with his first wife Elizabeth. He's identified as a costermonger on Elizabeth's death certificate. In the 1871 census (under Estall), Joseph is with his second wife Mary and his children by his first wife Elizabeth. IGI shows specific birth date and his parents.

22. WILLIAM ESTALL (24) , Unlawfully uttering counterfeit coin.

MESSRS. WILKINSON and COOKE Prosecuted.

ELIZABETH LITTLECHILD . On 24th September I was serving at a bazaar in Cranbourne Street, Leicester Square, kept by Levy Barber, and about 9.30 p.m. the prisoner bought a purse, price 6d., and gave me a bad florin— I said "This is bad"— he said "Well, what are you going to do with it?"— I said "I shall give you in custody for passing bad money"— he said "I had it given to me in Billingsgate Market for pushing a truck"— I gave him in custody with the florin— this is it.

HENRY BLAKE (Policeman C 297) The prisoner was given into my charge with this florin (produced)— I said "Is this all you have?"— he said "Yes, I have no other money"— I searched him and found a good florin and a halfpenny— he said he got the coin for pushing a barrow in Billingsgate Market that morning— he was remanded till 30th December, and then discharged.

ALFRED WATERTON . I am barman at the Well and Bucket Tavern, Bethnal Green Road— on November 6th I served the prisoner with half a pint of ale; he gave me a bad half-crown— I said "This is bad"— he said "Oh, is it?" and gave me a good florin— I gave him a shilling, sixpence, and fivepence— I showed the coin to a man named Davis, who handed it back to the prisoner— it was smooth to the touch and gritty to the teeth— my teeth sank in it— it was very light.

WALTER YARDLEY . I am employed at the Buck's Head Tavern,

Bethnal Green— on 6th November, about 10.15, the prisoner gave me a bad half-crown for a twopenny cigar— I was getting over the counter and he ran out; Jones and I followed him and brought him back, and he was given in charge.

JOSEPH JONES . I was at the Buck's Head and saw Mr. Yardley attempt to get over the counter— I then saw the prisoner and chased him; he put his hand in his trousers-pocket and threw something which I did not see, but it jingled in the gutter— I took him back to the house— the gutter was searched, but nothing was found, as there was so much water.

SAMUEL YARLEY . I keep the Buck's Head— on November 6th my son showed me a bad half-crown after the prisoner was brought back— I gave it to the constable with two others which I had taken.

CHARLES FARMER (Policeman). I took the prisoner, and Mr. Yardley marked the half-crown and gave it to me— I searched him, and found a florin, 11 shillings, four sixpences, and 3s. 2 1/2 d. in bronze, all good— as soon as I got outside a man and woman attempted to get the prisoner from me.

WILLIAM JOHN WEBSTER . This half-crown and florin are counterfeit.

GUILTY .— Fifteen Months' Hard Labour.

General Notes: We think that Alice, Alfred's mother, may have been unmarried and died giving birth to Alfred, based on Alice's death record and Alfred's birth record. Alfred was being raised by his grandparents in the 1881 and 1891 censuses. We've seen his marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was working as a factory hand when he married. He identified his father as Robert Estall, mason, but we don't know of any such Estall. Alfred is with his wife and children in 1911, carman for a timber merchant. He identifies his place of birth as Gray's Inn Road, which is where his grandparents Richard and Emma Estall lived. Alfred was a timber porter when Leonard was born. He was a chauffeur when Leonard married in 1928. He was living at 26 Bonner St when Henrietta married in 1936.

Cemetery: BEACH HEAD WAR CEMETERY, ANZIO

Country: Italy

Locality: unspecified

Visiting Information: Wheelchair access possible via main entrance. For further information regarding wheelchair access, please contact our Enquiries Section on telephone number 01628 507200.

Location Information: Anzio is a coastal town 70 kilometres south of Rome. To reach Anzio take the Route No.148 Superstrada Motorway, which runs between Rome and Latina. Turn off the Superstrada at the No.207, following the signs towards Anzio. The route is well signposted from the Superstrada. The Cemetery lies 5 kilometres north of Anzio town on the No.207 and Commission signs are visible 150 metres from the cemetery. There is a small parking area at the main entrance. Beach Head War Cemetery should not be confused with Anzio War Cemetery which lies just off the No.207, 1 kilometre north of Anzio. The cemetery is permanently open and may be visited anytime.

Historical Information: On 3 September 1943 the Allies invaded the Italian mainland, the invasion coinciding with an armistice made with the Italians who then re-entered the war on the Allied side. Progress through southern Italy was rapid despite stiff resistance, but by the end of October, the Allies were facing the German winter defensive position known as the Gustav Line, which stretched from the river Garigliano in the west to the Sangro in the east. Initial attempts to breach the western end of the line were unsuccessful. Operations in January 1944 landed troops behind the German lines at Anzio, but defences were well organised, and a breakthrough was not actually achieved until May. The site of the cemetery originally lay close to a casualty clearing station. Burials were made direct from the battlefield after the landings at Anzio and later, after the Army had moved forward, many graves were brought in from the surrounding country. Beach Head War Cemetery contains 2,315 Commonwealth burials of the Second World War, 294 of them unidentified. There is also one First World War burial which was brought into the cemetery from Chiete Communal Cemetery near Rome.

Cemetery: CASSINO MEMORIAL

Country: Italy

Locality: unspecified

Visiting Information: Wheelchair access to the cemetery is possible, but may be by alternative entrance. For further information regarding wheelchair access, please contact our Enquiries Section on telephone number 01628 507200. Unfortunately, even with the support of local police, due to regular theft and damage to the Memorial Register and Visitors Book, it is only possible for these to be accessible during the hours when the gardeners are present, as follows: Winter: 08.00-12.00 & 13.00-15.30 Summer: 07.00 - 12.00 & 13.00 - 15.30

Location Information: The Cassino Memorial is situated within Cassino War Cemetery, which lies in the Commune of Cassino, Province of Frosinone, 139 kilometres south-east of Rome. Take the autostrada A1 from Rome to Naples and leave it at the Cassino exit. At the junction of this exit and the road into Cassino, is the first of 6 clearly visible signposts to the cemetery and memorial. The cemetery is located approximately 1 kilometre from the railway station in Via Sant Angelo and visitors arriving by train are advised to take a taxi from the station.

Historical Information: On 3 September 1943 the Allies invaded the Italian mainland, the invasion coinciding with an armistice made with the Italians who then re-entered the war on the Allied side. Progress through southern Italy was rapid despite stiff resistance, but by the end of October, the Allies were facing the German winter defensive position known as the Gustav Line, which stretched from the river Garigliano in the west to the Sangro in the east. Initial attempts to breach the western end of the line were unsuccessful. Operations in January 1944 landed troops behind the German lines at Anzio, but defences were well organised, and a breakthrough was not actually achieved until 18 May, when Cassino was finally taken. The site for CASSINO WAR CEMETERY was originally selected in January 1944, but the development of the battle during the first five months of that year made it impossible to use it until after the Germans had withdrawn from Cassino. During these early months of 1944, Cassino saw some of the fiercest fighting of the Italian campaign, the town itself and the dominating Monastery Hill proving the most stubborn obstacles encountered in the advance towards Rome. The majority of those buried in the war cemetery died in the battles during these months. There are now 4,266 Commonwealth servicemen of the Second World War buried or commemorated at Cassino War Cemetery. 284 of the burials are unidentified. Within the cemetery stands the CASSINO MEMORIAL which commemorates over 4,000 Commonwealth servicemen who took part in the Italian campaign and whose graves are not known.

7-Joseph Estall was born on 28 Dec 1868 in St Pancras Old Church, Camden, London, Middlesex and died on 31 Jul 1916 in Abbeville Communal Cemetery, Somme, France aged 47.

General Notes: There is a Joseph of 1868 born in St Pancras, son of Joseph and Emma, in the IGL. We believe this is a mistake and should be Richard and Emma. Residence in 1901: 38 Blundell Street (1901 Census).

Joseph's WW1 Pension Records are online. If you look closely, when he joined up in 1914, he showed that he had been discharged previously from the Royal Artillery in 1904. We believe that the 'John Estall' in the 1891 census, a driver in the Royal Artillery, is actually this Joseph. His Pension Records also show that he was discharged in 1914 for bronchitis that would keep him from being an 'efficient soldier', but then he turned around and rejoined at some other location in 1915, apparently determined to fight. Cause of death is identified as self-inflicted cut throat while at a Field Hospital in Abbeville, France. We see that he was deemed to be not responsible for his actions because he was suffering from hallucinations, and he was awarded the British War Medal and Victory Medal. To a layman, the write-ups appear to indicate something like shellshock. Next of kin identified as brother Henry of Gough Road, Holborn (we believe this was Ambrose). Also, his belongings were to be dispatched to brother Richard at 14 Victoria Place, Queensland Road, Holloway.

Joseph was a Private in the Army Service Corps, 365th Coy. Mechanical Transport, service no T4/96282. He died at age 46 and the record of his burial can be found on the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website. He served in the South African Wars as well as World War I. He's buried at Abbeville Communal Cemetery, grave ref VI.F.12.

Cemetery: ABBEVILLE COMMUNAL CEMETERY

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

Country: France

Locality: unspecified

Historical Information: For much of the First World War, Abbeville was headquarters of the Commonwealth lines of communication and No 3 BRCS, No 5 and No 2 Stationary Hospitals were stationed there variously from October 1914 to January 1920. The communal cemetery was used for burials from November 1914 to September 1916, the earliest being made among the French military graves. The extension was begun in September 1916. During the early part of the Second World War, Abbeville was a major operational aerodrome, but the town fell to the Germans at the end of May 1940. On 4 June, an attempt was made by the 51st Division, in conjunction with the French, to break the German bridgehead, but without success. Towards the end of 1943, eight large ski shaped buildings appeared near Abbeville. These proved to be storage units for flying bomb components as they were heavily bombed by Commonwealth air forces. Abbeville was retaken on 4 September 1944 by Canadian and Polish units. Abbeville Communal Cemetery contains 774 Commonwealth burials of First World War and 30 from the Second. The Extension contains 1,754 First World War burials and 348 from the Second. The Commonwealth sections of both cemetery and extension were designed by Sir Reginald Blomfield. No. of Identified Casualties: 796

7-Ambrose Henry Estall was born in 1871 in St Pancras Old Church, Camden, London, Middlesex and died in Jun 1948 in Paddington, London, Middlesex aged 77. Another name for Ambrose was Henry.

Living on Gray's Inn Road in 1915, according to brother Joseph's service records. On Thirza's death certificate in 1936, Ambrose is identified as a news vendor. He was either living at 141 Lower Marsh, Lambeth or Parker House, Parker Street, Kingsway, Lambeth.

There is a 'Henry Estall' in the 1891 census, listed as a patient at Darenth, Kent. This Henry dies in Dec 1891 still at the hospital location. To date, we don't know of a Henry Estall with this birthdate. Could this possibly be Ambrose Henry, who does not appear after the 1881 census and who we have not located a death record for? Historical Information: The site was chosen in August 1916 for burials from the 49th Casualty Clearing Station, which arrived at Contay at the end of August. It was joined by the 9th CCS in September. All the burials in Plots I to IV and the majority of those in Plots VII and VIII (the plot numbers V and VI were not used) cover the period August 1916 to March 1917. Most of them were made from these two clearing stations. The German withdrawal to the Hindenburg Line in the spring of 1917 brought the medical units further east and it was not until April 1918, when the Germans advanced to Albert, that the 38th and other Divisions used the cemetery again, completing Plots VII and VIII and forming the two rows in Plot IX. The last burial took place in August 1918. Contay British Cemetery contains 1,133 First World War burials. The cemetery was designed by Sir Reginald Blomfield.

THIEPVAL MEMORIAL

Country: France

Locality: Somme

Historical Information: On 1 July 1916, supported by a French attack to the south, thirteen divisions of Commonwealth forces launched an offensive on a line from north of Gommecourt to Maricourt. Despite a preliminary bombardment lasting seven days, the German defences were barely touched and the attack met unexpectedly fierce resistance. Losses were catastrophic and with only minimal advances on the southern flank, the initial attack was a failure. In the following weeks, huge resources of manpower and equipment were deployed in an attempt to exploit the modest successes of the first day. However, the German Army resisted tenaciously and repeated attacks and counter attacks meant a major battle for every village, copse and farmhouse gained. At the end of September, Thiepval was finally captured. The village had been an original objective of 1 July. Attacks north and east continued throughout October and into November in increasingly difficult weather conditions. The Battle of the Somme finally ended on 18 November with the onset of winter. In the spring of 1917, the German forces fell back to their newly prepared defences, the Hindenburg Line, and there were no further significant engagements in the Somme sector until the Germans mounted their major offensive in March 1918. The Thiepval Memorial, the Memorial to the Missing of the Somme, bears the names of more than 72,000 officers and men of the United Kingdom and South African forces who died in the Somme sector before 20 March 1918 and have no known grave. Over 90% of those commemorated died between July and November 1916. The memorial also serves as an Anglo-French Battle Memorial in recognition of the joint nature of the 1916 offensive and a small cemetery containing equal numbers of Commonwealth and French graves lies at the foot of the memorial. The memorial, designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens, was built between 1928 and 1932 and unveiled by the Prince of Wales, in the presence of the President of France, on 31 July 1932. The dead of other Commonwealth countries who died on the Somme and have no known graves are commemorated on national memorials elsewhere.

We have heard from J. Barrett Stowe, a living descendent of Alfred and Mary, through Genes Reunited. We're thrilled that she has shared notes left by her aunt whose grandmother was Mary Emily:

"In appearance Nana was an older version of her two eldest daughters - about 5ft 2 in height, black hair, brown eyes, olive complexion. She'd had ten children; 2 boys who died in childhood, Mary Eliza Jane (known as Nin), Arthur, Lily, George, Dolly (? Dorothy M), Winnie, Albert and Gladys. At some time Nana owned a tiny grocery shop located in a wooden hut in Crossford Street. My main memory is of when she had the little Refreshment kiosk in Victoria Park".

Her aunt also wondered if Mary Emily had been brought up in the Roman Catholic faith as she once found a string of Rosary beads that her mother said had belonged to Mary Emily.

John Alfred Estall was the youngest child of Henry Joseph Estall and Victoria Rose Estall (formerly Mutlow). He was born on 26th December 1911 at 38, High Street, Bromley, London. His mother Victoria died less than three weeks after his birth on 14th January 1912. He and his brother and two sisters were raised by grandmother Eliza Estall (formerly Allen), Henry Joseph's mother.

Eliza brought the children up under the Roman Catholic faith and they went to a Roman Catholic school. John Alfred did not enjoy the experience where he said the Nuns were very strict and also very cruel.

His early years in employment involved an apprenticeship in cabinet making, but he had an aptitude for anything mechanical or electrical and spent his spare time repairing and building radios. He also worked on motor bi-cycles and his first was a belt-driven bike with oil lamps. He met May Violet Dent in the 1930's and they were married in the Register Office in Poplar on 23rd May 1936. His profession at that time was shown as Motor Mechanic. At the time of marriage he lived at 94, Hewlett Road, Bow and May V. Dent lived at 5, Hewlett Road. The family moved to 589, Heathway, Dagenham and it was from here on 5th June 1940 that he went and enlisted at Whipps Cross in the Royal Army Service Corps (for the duration of the War) being shown as a Lorry Driver. He was sent to No:4 RASC Driver Training Centre on 8th July 1940. He was sent to Loughborough in Liecestershire for further training and whilst here he found new property available on the Stocking Farm Estate, Leicester and he moved the family into 43, Woodstock Road at the end of 1940. Shortly afterwards he was posted to Egypt where he served in the Eighth Army firstly on Munitions and later as a Staff Car Driver. His service book shows he was promoted to the rank of Corporal in 1943 and passed a 7 day course in Mine Laying and Lifting in February 1944 at No:21 Base Supply Depot and also a 5 day Rodent Control Course.

He returned to the UK in August 1945 and was granted 30 days disembarkation leave. He was discharged from service from the Military Dispersal Unit Northampton on 18th December 1945 with the service trade of Electrician Class 1. His testimonial reads: Exemplary Military Conduct. 'An Electrician Class 1 of outstanding ability - can organise and carry through any electrical job to complete satisfaction. Honest, hardworking. Visiting Information: The Panel Numbers quoted at the end of each entry relate to the panels dedicated to the Regiment served with. In some instances where a casualty is recorded as attached to another Regiment, his name may alternatively appear within their Regimental Panels. Please refer to the on-site Memorial Register Introduction to determine the alternative panel numbers if you do not find the name within the quoted Panels.

Location Information: Le Touret Memorial is located at the east end of Le Touret Military Cemetery, on the south side of the Bethune-Armentieres main road. From Bethune follow the signs for Armentieres until you are on the D171. Continue on this road through Essars and Le Touret village. Approximately 1 kilometre after Le Touret village and about 5 kilometres before you reach the intersection with the D947, Estaires to La Bassee road, the Cemetery lies on the right hand side of the road. The Memorial takes the form of a loggia surrounding an open rectangular court. The court is enclosed by three solid walls and on the eastern side by a colonnade. East of the colonnade is a wall and the colonnade and wall are prolonged northwards (to the road) and southwards, forming a long gallery. Small pavilions mark the ends of the gallery and the western corners of the court.

Historical Information: The Memorial in Le Touret Military Cemetery, Richebourg-l'Avoue, is one of those erected by the Commonwealth War Graves Commission to record the names of the officers and men who fell in the Great War and whose graves are not known. It serves the area enclosed on the North by the river Lys and a line drawn from Estaires to Fournes, and on the South by the old Southern boundary of the First Army about Grenay; and it covers the period from the arrival of the II Corps in Flanders in 1914 to the eve of the Battle of Loos. It does not include the names of officers and men of Canadian or Indian regiments; they are found on the Memorials at Vimy and Neuve-Chapelle. The names of those commemorated are listed on panels set into the walls of the court and the gallery, arranged by Regiment, Rank and alphabetically by surname within the rank. Over 13,000 names are listed on the memorial of men who fell in this area before 25 September 1915 and who have no known grave. The memorial was designed by J.R. Truelove and unveiled by Lord Tyrrell on 22 March 1930.

about 1811 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged about 38.

General Notes: We saw John's baptism record (2 May 1773), son of William and Sarah Estall living at Swan Yard, in the St Leonard parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. However, why was he baptised at St Leonard's, Shoreditch, while William and Sarah were married at St Matthew, Bethnal Green, and their other two children were baptised at St Matthew? We don't know of any other William and Sarah having children at that time and would note that St Leonard, St Matthew and Swan Yard are all very close together.

John is listed as a weaver on his son John's baptism record. We've seen his marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. We know his approximate date of death because when Elizabeth, who is in the workhouse at age 65, applies for relief for her son Henry in 1840, she identifies that John has passed away 29 years prior.

John married Elizabeth Tops on 29 May 1796 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. Elizabeth was born about 1775, died in Nov 1843 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged about 68, and was buried on 19 Nov 1843 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. They had five children: John, Elizabeth, Samuel William, George and Henry.

5-John Estall was born on 2 Jul 1798 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 22 Jul 1798 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died Q2 1874 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 75.

General Notes: We saw John's baptism record, son of John (weaver) and Elizabeth, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. Shown with parents in IGI. We've seen their marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Identified as a weaver living at New Inn Yard when son Robert was born in 1829. In 1841, we know they were living on Weaver Street based on the birth (1839) and death (1843) certificates of their son William. We have now located John, Mary and 6 children in the 1841 census under 'Esham' on Weaver Street. In 1851 census, whole family is shown except James and Robert (see notes on James and Robert), as well as William who we think died as a child. In the 1861 census, John, his wife and daughter Mary Sophia are in the census but the form is ripped and they show up as '?? Estall' born in 1799, 1799 and 1843. John is with his daughter Harriet (now Houghton) and his granddaughters in the 1871 census. Labourer.

John married Mary Sophia West, daughter of John West and Elizabeth -, in 1822 in Hackney, London, Middlesex. Mary was born about 1797 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and died in Jun 1881 in Mile End Old Town, Stepney, London, Middlesex aged about 84. They had nine children: Mary Louisa, James, John, Robert, Mary Ann, Harriet, George, William and Mary Sophia.

General Notes: We have seen the baptism record of Mary, under 'Estell', in the St Matthew's parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. She is identified as the daughter of John and Mary Estall on Camden St, where John is a weaver. Her burial record is in the Gibraltar Row Dissident's Cemetery register at The National Archives, Kew. 6-James Estall was born about 1823 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and died Q4 1888 in Lewes, Sussex aged about 65.

General Notes: We have the marriage certificate for James and Sarah, identifying James as the son of John, silk weaver, and Sarah as the daughter of William, also a silk weaver. Their address was 47 Old Castle St, the same as Sarah's parents' address. In fact, the marriage certificate also identifies James and Sarah themselves to be silk weavers. Their first child was born before the marriage and their second child was dead at birth (we have the death certificate). Sarah died the following day (we also have her death certificate). The death certificates identify James as a weaver.

We know that James and Elizabeth's family (James' second family) was from Bethnal Green and now we've gotten the marriage certificate to confirm this is the right James. Marriage witnessed by Samuel Dowsett and Elizabeth Dowsett (mother-in-law). We're not sure who Samuel is. We placed them with John and Mary Sophia because their daughter Harriett married Thomas Dowsett (her second marriage) who is the brother of James Estall's wife Elizabeth Dowsett. In 1851, he and Elizabeth are in Bethnal Green on Old Castle St, incorrectly indexed as surname 'Hall'. In 1871, they're in Southampton. In the 1881 census, James and Elizabeth are lodgers in Sussex. James is identified as a painter.

We believe this is the James who was acquitted of a larceny charge in 1846, as shown in the new Criminal Court Records now available through ancestry.co.uk:

7-James H. Estall was born on 12 Aug 1851 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 7 Sep 1851 in St Matthias, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Birth record found in Q3 1851, Bethnal Green. We've seen James' baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was born at 5 Castle St and was baptised at the same time as his half brother, William. Living with his mother and his maternal grandparents in 1861 census. In 1871 census, living away from his parents but both he and his parents were living in Hampshire. Marriage in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, under 'James Estall Jr'. The marriage certificate identifies James as a Dining Rooms Keeper, living at Lambeth Walk.

In 1881, living with his wife 'Alice' indexed as 'Jas. Eastall', listed as a tradesman and living at 72 Lambeth Walk. Tradesman. Based on his wife's birth date and middle name, we believe that 'Alice' is the same person as the Sarah Moore shown on James' marriage certificate from 1880. With wife and children in 1891 but we haven't found birth records for the children. Coffee house keeper.

Jacob W. Estall in later censuses (1871 away at school, 1881 married). We believe John Easthill, born 1825 in Bethnal Green, is the same as our John Estall, son of John and Mary Sophia, born 1825 in Bethnal Green. They're both identified as weavers.

This could be the John who was sentenced to 14 days for larceny in 1846, according to the new Criminal Court Records now available through ancestry.co.uk:

Name: John Estall
Age: 22
Estimated Birth Year: abt 1824
Date of Trial: 30 Jun 1846
Location of Trial: Essex, England
Sentence: Imprisonment

Marriage record says John Esthall, bachelor, and Ann Houghton, spinster. We now have the actual marriage certificate which identifies the fathers of both John and Ann. Ann's father, William, was deceased at the time of this marriage. It also identifies Mary Ann Esthall as the witness, we're not sure who this is.

We now have the marriage certificate for John's second marriage. He's identified as a labourer. With second wife in 1881, under 'Eastale'. Labourer.

John married Ann Houghton, daughter of William Houghton and Sarah -, on 15 Jan 1854 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. Ann was born about 1827 in St Botolph Bishopsgate, London City, London and died in Dec 1864 in Greenwich, London, Kent aged about 37. They had two children: Mary Ann and Jacob William.

7-Mary Ann Estall was born on 12 Oct 1854 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 30 Dec 1855 in St Dunstan & All Saints, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. We have the actual birth certificate of Mary Ann, showing that she is the daughter of John (weaver) and Ann Houghton. Mary Ann is in the IGI with her parents, under 'Estell'. We've now seen Mary Ann's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, under 'Estell'. Although not indexed, the 1871 census image shows Mary Ann in school (likely workhouse) with Jacob. She is two years older than Jacob.

We now have Mary Ann's marriage certificate, showing her as the spinster daughter of John Estall, labourer. To date, we've not been able to find John and Mary Ann in a later census to verify that we've got the correct Mary Ann.

Cemetery: AMARA WAR CEMETERY

Country: Iraq

Locality: unspecified

Visiting Information: NOTE: Whilst the current climate of political instability persists it is not possible for the Commission to manage or maintain its cemeteries and memorials located within Iraq. Alternative arrangements for commemoration have therefore been implemented and a two volume Roll of Honour listing all casualties buried and commemorated in Iraq has been produced. These volumes are on display at the Commission's Head Office in Maidenhead and are available for the public to view. The Commission continues to monitor the situation in Iraq and once the political climate has improved to an acceptable level the Commission will commence a major rehabilitation project for its cemeteries and commemorations. THE COMMISSION STRONGLY ADVISES THAT THE FOREIGN AND COMMONWEALTH OFFICE SHOULD BE CONTACTED BEFORE ATTEMPTING TO VISIT IRAQ. Location Information: Amara is a town on the left bank of the Tigris some 520 kilometres from the sea. The War Cemetery is a little east of the town between the left bank of the river and the Chahaila Canal.

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

Historical Information: Amara was occupied by the Mesopotamian Expeditionary Force on 3 June 1915 and it immediately became a hospital centre. The accommodation for medical units on both banks of the Tigris was greatly increased during 1916 and in April 1917, seven general hospitals and some smaller units were stationed there. Amara War Cemetery contains 4,621 burials of the First World War, more than 3,000 of which were brought into the cemetery after the Armistice. 925 of the graves are unidentified. In 1933, all of the headstones were removed from this cemetery when it was discovered that salts in the soil were causing them to deteriorate. Instead a screen wall was erected with the names of those buried in the cemetery engraved upon it. Plot XXV is a Collective Grave, the individual burial places within this are not known. There are also seven non-war graves in the cemetery.

No. of Identified Casualties: 3703

John next married Margaret Maria Cunningham, daughter of John Cunningham and Frances Susan, on 23 Jul 1871 in St George Hanover Square, Westminster, London, Middlesex. Margaret was born on 26 Aug 1833 in Westminster, London, Middlesex and died in Mar 1917 in Wandsworth, London, Surrey aged 83.

6-Robert Estall was born on 25 Oct 1829 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 22 Nov 1829 in St Leonard Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, died on 10 Nov 1912 in Wellington, New Zealand aged 83, and was buried on 12 Nov 1912 in Karori Cemetery, Wellington, New Zealand.

General Notes: Robert is shown as the son of John and Mary on IGI and now we've seen his baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He is with his family in the 1841 census (under 'Esham') but he does not appear with the rest of the family in the 1851 census. However, in 1851 he was about 22 and could have left home. He is also placed with this family based on a note from Phyl Stewart of New Zealand who is a direct descendant of this family. We've seen Robert's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He is identified as a fireworks maker. He is listed as a 'Sapper E.I.C.' on his son Robert's baptism record. We believe this refers to the East India Company. Death listed at bdmhistoricalrecords.identityservices.govt.nz.

Phyl Stewart notes that Robert and Emma were living in Hoxton when they married. Robert went on to become a Sargeant in the British Army in India and was pensioned to New Zealand around 1877.

Robert's life in New Zealand appears fairly calm relatively to the experiences of some of other cousins. He does occasionally appear in the papers, see paperspast.natlib.govt.nz, but mostly related to business and council type dealings. He did have occasional happenings though, for example from the Evening Post, 10 Jul 1883:

An accident, which might have resulted very seriously, occurred yesterday afternoon to a man named Robert Estall, who was driving a horse attached to a vehicle along Willis-street, about half-past three. The animal shied at one of the tram-oars, and the driver was precipitated against the verandah post. He was at once taken to Dr. Hutchinson, who ascertained that no bones had been broken, and was then conveyed to his house in Tory-street in a cab. Estall has received a severe shaking, but expects to be able to resume work in a day or two.

Robert is a boarder in Devon in 1901. We have the certificate for Robert's second marriage at age 72 and it's now in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He is identified as a widowed Army Pensioner, living back in London, St Bartholomew's parish, St Pancras, Grays Inn Road at 20 Wells Street. Eliza Murkett, who was living at this address in the 1901 census with her husband Richard, is a witness to the wedding. He and Flora apparently returned to New Zealand in 1903:

7-Emma Thain Estall was born in 1862 in Roorkee, Bengal, India and died in 1941 in New Zealand aged 79.

General Notes: This is based on Army Births & Baptisms register, which identifies Emma T. being born in 1862, listed under the 72nd in Roorkee. We think this might be the 72nd Highlanders. Marriage is listed at bdmhistoricalrecords.identityservices.govt.nz and is in IGI. It's also in the Wanganui Chronicle identifying that Emma was from India. Death record is also at this site.

It appears that Emma or her mother had not always seen eye to eye with her father. After his death, the Evening Post of 6 Oct 1913 reports:

Unusual circumstances led to a judgment of more than ordinary interests in an originating summons in the matter of the will of Robert Estall, late of Wellington, settler, deceased. The decision was delivered by Mr. Justice Chapman to-day. Emma Thain Claridge was plaintiff and Flora Cassie Estall defendant. "The deceased," said his Honour, "when over seventy years of age married the defendant, who was quite young, promising (as she says) to leave his property to her if she left her position as clerk and became his wife. He has left his estate, which comes to over £3000, to her. The plaintiff is his only daughter and his only surviving child. She is very much older than her father's widow. She is in fairly comfortable circumstances, her husband being a printer in Government service who earns £3 per -week and who, when he has to retire, will have a small pension. Plaintiff and her father did not meet for many years. Deceased 1 had quarrelled with his first wife, who was her mother, and they lived apart. His Honour, without discussing the merits of this part of the question, thought that the daughter had not been properly provided for, and could be, without trenching on the allowance of the widow, whose claim was paramount. The plaintiff was allowed a sum of £200, with £10 costs out of the estate. The legacy left to a charity was exonerated.

Emma married Herbert Josiah Claridge, son of Josiah Claridge and Mary Merthyr, on 8 Jul 1882 in St Peter, Wellington, New Zealand. Herbert was born on 9 Sep 1855 in Clapham, Lambeth, London, Surrey, died on 17 Sep 1936 in Wellington, New Zealand aged 81, and was buried on 19 Sep 1936 in Karori, Wellington, New Zealand. 5-Elizabeth Estall was born on 24 Nov 1801 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 20 Dec 1801 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw Elizabeth's birth record, daughter of John (weaver) and Elizabeth, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. She is with her parents in IGI.

5-Samuel William Estall was born on 5 Feb 1804 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 26 Feb 1804 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw Samuel's birth record, son of John and Elizabeth, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. He was baptised the same day as his future cousin Elizabeth Buck. He was identified as poor. We also saw his marriage record to Susannah, where he is listed as a widow. The marriage was witnessed by Henry Estall, presumably John's brother, and Sarah Carr, presumably Susannah's (and his first wife Ann's) sister. Shown with parents in IGI. Also shown with wife and some of the children in IGI. Samuel is shown as Samuel W. on his marriage records which we've seen in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. For the marriage to Ann, he is identified as a bachelor. For the marriage to Susannah, he is identified as a widow. The marriage is witnessed by Sarah Carr, perhaps a sister? We believe that Ann died, probably giving birth to her last son who also died, and that then Samuel married another Carr (Ann's sister or other relative?) who raised Ann's surviving two children along with the children Samuel and Susannah had in the 1830s. Living at Ram Alley, Bethnal Green in 1827 when son George John was born.

Children are with Samuel and Susannah in 1841 census, where Samuel is a weaver living on Charles Street. There are two boys aged 15, George and Samuel. Son Samuel is from Samuel's first marriage, but we don't yet know who this George is. Note that the ages of Susannah's children are wrong in the 1841 census, since we know their real birth dates from the church records in the IGI. Our guess is that the ages have been raised in the census so that it seems all the children were born before the Marriage Law of 1835 which forbade marriage to sisters of deceased wives (however, the law did not apply to marriages before 1835).

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

Samuel married Mary Ann Scott Q1 1850 in Sunderland, Durham. Mary was born about 1827 in Gainsborough, Scotland and died in Dec 1902 in Sunderland, Durham aged about 75. They had six children: John Huntley, Samuel, John, George, John and Mary Ann.

7-John Huntley Estall died Q3 1851 in Sunderland, Durham.

General Notes: There are death records for John Estall and John Huntley Estall in Q3 1851, same volume and page. We think these must be the same person and since this is the only Estall family having children in Sunderland at this time, we've put him with these parents. Should confirm with the death certificate.

7-Samuel Estall was born Q1 1853 in Sunderland, Durham and died on 27 Sep 1883 at Sea aged 30.

General Notes: Found listing of deaths on ships on the 1837 website, where Samuel is shown as having drowned from a boat call Larkspur. Listing in source documents. Samuel, Jane and son Samuel are in the 1881 Scotland census, with Samuel Senior identified as James, a seaman mate. Perhaps his name was Samuel James (or vice versa).

We have the image of the listing of maritime deaths where Samuel drowned on the Larkspur.

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

General Notes: With parents in 1911, under 'George Estell Wardhaugh'. Tailor's assistant.

George was killed in action aboard HMS Flirt On 26 / 27th October 1916, English Channel in Strait of Dover - German destroyers. On the night of the 26th/27th "HMS Flirt" (Lt R Kellett with a crew of about 80) left Dover around 20.00hrs and two hours later heard gunfire from the drifter line guarding the Dover anti-U-boat net and mine barrage. A German destroyer raid was in progress, part of a force of two and a half flotillas attacking the drifters, patrolling destroyers and any other Allied shipping . "HMS Flirt" came across drifter "Waveney II" on fire and lowered a boat to render assistance. In the early hours of the 27th, on a very dark, overcast night, enemy destroyers appeared, and opened fire sinking her with all hands, except for the boat's crew who survived. Some sources credit "HMS Flirt's" loss to a torpedo. A total of six drifters were sunk and destroyer "Nubian" torpedoed and damaged that night.

George's service record is available online from the National Archives, he's commemorated at Portsmouth Naval Memorial for sailors lost at sea and he is commemorated on the Commonwealth War Graves Commission website.

Country: United Kingdom

Locality: Hampshire

Visiting Information: Disabled access to the Memorial is possible via ramps at the rear of the Memorial. For further information regarding disabled access, please contact our Enquiries Section on 01628 507200.

Location Information: The Memorial is situated on Southsea Common overlooking the promenade, and is accessible at all times. A copy of the Memorial Register is kept at the Civic Offices in Guildhall Square and may be consulted there.

Historical Information: After the First World War, an appropriate way had to be found of commemorating those members of the Royal Navy who had no known grave, the majority of deaths having occurred at sea where no permanent memorial could be provided. An Admiralty committee recommended that the three manning ports in Great Britain - Chatham, Plymouth and Portsmouth - should each have an identical memorial of unmistakable naval form, an obelisk, which would serve as a leading mark for shipping. The memorials were designed by Sir Robert Lorimer, who had already carried out a considerable amount of work for the Commission, with sculpture by Henry Poole. After the Second World War it was decided that the naval memorials should be extended to provide space for commemorating the naval dead without graves of that war, but since the three sites were dissimilar, a different architectural treatment was required for each. The architect for the Second World War extension at Portsmouth was Sir Edward Maufe (who also designed the Air Forces memorial at Runnymede) and the additional sculpture was by Charles Wheeler, William McMillan, and Esmond Burton. Portsmouth Naval Memorial commemorates 9,667 sailors of the First World War and 14,918 of the Second World War

Henry married Elizabeth Rice, daughter of Samuel Rice and Mary Ann Bass, on 21 Oct 1828 in St John at Hackney, London, Middlesex. Elizabeth was born on 13 Sep 1808 in Hackney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 9 Oct 1808 in St John at Hackney, London, Middlesex, and died Q1 1873 in Poplar, London, Middlesex aged 64. They had 11 children: Elizabeth, Mary Ann, Susannah, Sarah Ann, Henry, James, John Joseph, George Benjamin, Elizabeth Ann, William Edward and Hannah Maria.

6-Elizabeth Estall was born on 18 Jan 1831 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 5 Nov 1834 in St Leonard Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, and died on 18 Feb 1836 in Gibraltar Row, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 5.

General Notes: In IGI with parents. We've seen Elizabeth's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. We assume Elizabeth died as a child since we don't see her in the 1841 census. We know that a number of descendants of William Estall and Sarah Bay were buried in the Gibraltar Row Dissident's Cemetery in the early 1800s, so we believe the following burial record from www.bmdregisters.co.uk is the burial record for this Elizabeth.

General Notes: In IGI with parents and siblings. We believe this is Henry 'Eastall' in the BMD records, born Q4 1839 Bethnal Green. We saw Henry's birth record, son of Henry and Elizabeth, Great Leonard St, weaver, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. He was baptised on the same day/same church as his first cousin Hannah, daughter of Samuel and Susannah. We believe this is the Henry Estall who went into the Royal Navy on 14 May 1853, entering service aboard the 120-gun HMS Waterloo commissioned in 1833. We have his service papers, showing that he started with a rating of 'Boy 2nd Class'. His birthdate at that time is identified as 22 Sep 1840, but we suspect this was a simple error and it should have read 22 Sep 1839. His paperwork also shows that his parents agreed in writing that Henry was committed to Naval service not only as a boy, but also for 10 years from the date of his 18th birthday.

Marriage in parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Marriage witnessed by Mary Estall, probably his sister, and Walter Berry, brother-in-law. They were living at 2 Tysen St when they married. Henry was a wood dealer when he married.

This is probably the Henry in hospital in 1871 census, with birth in 1839 and from Bethnal Green. They were at 19 Preston St when daughters Maria and Rosa were born in 1877. He was a labourer at the time. Henry and Sarah are in the 1891 census, where Henry is indexed as 'Harry' (erroneous index). Henry and Sarah are boarders together in the 1901 census. With wife in 1911, under 'Estell', both are making matchboxes. Death record in BMD (birth year shown as 1840).

7-Emma Jane Estall was born on 6 Jan 1862 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We have Emma Jane's birth certificate, she was born on William Street. We have the certificate for her first marriage, but we don't know where she is in 1881 or 1891 censuses. We now have a second marriage certificate for Emma Estall, but it shows her as an Estall rather than a Bigot and her age as 25 in 1893 - so maybe we've got this wrong. But Harry Estall, presumably her father, and her sister Sarah Brewer witnessed the wedding. Perhaps she adjusted her age so that she's not older than her second husband, but we still don't know why we see her as an 'Estall' when she'd been previously married. We also believe this is the Emma and Alfred 'Warren' in 1901 in East Ham, where they show their ages as Alfred 31 and Emma 30. Emma is working as a match box maker in 1901. With husband in 1911 under 'Waren'.

General Notes: Birth and death records in BMD. Mary's burial record is listed at www.bmdregisters.co.uk. There is some possibility that Mary is the daughter of Henry's brother George rather than Henry and Sarah Jane, but a number of closely related Estall families were living at Collins Place during this time and we'd need to get Mary's birth record to be certain.

7-Sarah Jane Estall was born Q1 1873 in Poplar, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. We found this marriage on the Outten Family website and we've found a marriage record in the BMD. However, the website identifies the grandfather of Sarah as William, whereas we have him as Henry. We think Henry is the correct grandfather. We also now have a note from another Brewer descendant who identifies that Frederick and Sarah Jane had a number of children. With husband and children in 1911, box maker at R. Bells and Co.

Sarah married Frederick Charles Brewer, son of Charles Brewer and Mary Davis, on 17 Dec 1889 in Holy Trinity Church, Barking, Essex. Frederick was born about 1871 in Rayleigh, Essex. They had ten children: Mabel Lily, Frederick Charles, Arthur Henry, Mary Ann Matilda, Sarah Jane, Rose Helen, Benjamin John, Violet Emily, Grace Lilian C. and Edward G.

8-Mabel Lily Brewer was born Q3 1892 in Upton Park, West Ham, London, Essex and died Q3 1893 in West Ham, London, Essex aged 1.

General Notes: Birth and death records in BMD.

8-Frederick Charles Brewer was born Q1 1896 in Upton Park, West Ham, London, Essex.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With parents in 1911, working as a plumber boy.

8-Arthur Henry Brewer was born on 8 Jun 1897 in Upton Park, West Ham, London, Essex and died in 1919 at Sea, HMS Tiger aged 22.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With parents in 1911.

8-Benjamin John Brewer was born on 19 Aug 1906 in Plaistow, West Ham, London, Essex.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With parents in 1911.

Benjamin married Beat Gilman.

8-Violet Emily Brewer was born Q1 1908 in West Ham, London, Essex.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With parents in 1911.

8-Grace Lilian C. Brewer was born on 10 Nov 1910 in Plaistow, West Ham, London, Essex and died in 2001 in Horbury, Yorkshire aged 91.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With parents in 1911. Information on Grace's family comes from V. Brierley, a living descendant, on Genes Reunited.

Grace married Sydney Daniel William Michael Powell on 7 Jun 1931 in Plaistow, West Ham, London, Essex. Sydney was born on 7 Jul 1908 in Plaistow, West Ham, London, Essex and died in 1955 in Wakefield, Yorkshire aged 47.

8-Edward G. Brewer was born Q1 1912 in West Ham, London, Essex.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD.

7-Maria Ann Estall was born on 11 Aug 1877 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 9 Sep 1877 in St James the Great, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died in Dec 1877 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Birth and death records in BMD under 'Estall'. We've seen Maria's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. She was the twin of Rosa. They were living at 19 Preston St.

6-James Estall was born about 1840 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, died in Aug 1842 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged about 2, and was buried on 10 Aug 1842 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: James is with his parents in the 1841 census. This is probably James 'Eastall' registered Q2 of 1841, although he is six months old at the time of the census so he was probably born Q4 1840. We have seen James' burial record at ancestry.co.uk London, England, Deaths and Burials, 1813-1980. He was living at Dunk St.

6-John Joseph Estall was born on 8 Sep 1844 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 12 Apr 1846 in St Leonard Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, and died Q3 1916 in Poplar, London, Middlesex aged 71.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. We saw John Joseph's baptism record, son of Henry and Elizabeth, Christopher St, weaver, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. The surname was listed as 'Eastall', but we can find no Henry and Elizabeth Eastall at this time so we have assumed it's the Estall family. He was born on Christopher St. Parents shown in 1861 census, wife and first child (William) in 1871 census (under 'Eastall') where John is listed as a grave digger, wife and children in 1881, 1891, 1901 ('Estell') censuses. Note that in the 1871 census, John's brother George lives on the same street (Collins Place), also under 'Eastall'. With wife in 1911, waterside labourer.

John married Emma Cousins, daughter of Charles Cousins and Emma -.
Emma was born circa 1845 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and died in Mar 1922 in Poplar, London, Middlesex aged 77. They had 15 children: John George, John George, William James, Emma Mary Ann, Ann Elizabeth, Thomas Henry, Charles, Henry, Louisa Maria, George Richard, Mary Ann Caroline Susan, Henry, Betsy, John Charles and Emma.

7-John George Estall was born Q3 1865 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and died on 9 Feb 1866 in Hackney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Birth and death records in BMD. In the 1871 census, John Joseph and Emma were living at 7 Collins Place. Based on their address and the dates of their childrens' births, we believe that the John of 1865 whose burial record we see at www.bmdregisters.co.uk Non-Conformist records is the son of John Joseph and Emma. A number of descendants of William Estall and Sarah Bay were buried in Dissident Cemeteries.

died Q1 1922 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 53.

General Notes: William's birth record is in the BMD. William is with his parents in the 1871 census under 'Eastall'. In the 1881 census, he's still with his parents and siblings under 'Estall' but he's listed as 'James William'. We now have his marriage record identifying him as 'William'. The marriage record is now available in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. We can tell this is John and Emma's William because the certificate identifies his father as John and his address as Collins Place, which is where John and Emma lived. (Additionally, his brother Charles married Avis Benstead, whose family also lived at Collins Place). In the 1901 census, the whole family is together (except William John), all listed as Estalls. Widowed with children in 1911, also with daughter Rose's family. Bricklayer's labourer. Death record in BMD. We now have William's death certificate, witnessed by his daughter Avis. He died of colon and liver cancer. He was living on Wennington Rd.

This is the census record showing William with Mary Ann and their first two children listed as stepchildren and last name 'Smith'. In the next census, his birth year reads 1864 instead of 1867.

Cemetery: LEE-ON-SOLENT MEMORIAL

Country: United Kingdom

Locality: Hampshire

Location Information: This Memorial will be found on the main sea front, sited on Marine Parade West, approximately half a mile west of the town centre.

Historical Information: During the Second World War the Fleet Air Arm served in almost every theatre. In a reconnaissance role they supported land operations in France, the Netherlands, North Africa, Italy, and the Far East. Operating from aircraft carriers (seven of which were lost during the war), they were one of the chief weapons against the U-boats in the Atlantic and in support of the Russian convoys. In November 1940, Fleet Air Arm Swordfish biplanes carrying torpedoes undertook a night raid on the harbour at Taranto, resulting in disaster for the Italian navy. Aircraft from HMS Victorious and Ark Royal took part in the sinking of the German battleship Bismark in May 1941 and in February 1942, when the Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and Prinz Eugen attempted a daring dash along the English Channel from the Atlantic to the relative safety of the North Sea, they were attacked by Swordfish of the Fleet Air Arm. The principal base of the Fleet Air Arm, Lee-on-the-Solent, Hampshire, was chosen as the site for the memorial to almost 2,000 men of that service who died during the Second World War and who have no known grave.

Jane married Alfred Sutton, son of William Sutton and Eleanor Talbot, on 1 Aug 1915 in Holy Trinity, Mile End Old Town, Stepney, London, Middlesex. Alfred was born on 22 Aug 1882 in Old Ford, Bow, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 10 Sep 1882 in St John, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

6-William Edward Estall was born on 4 Jul 1852 in Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 26 Sep 1852 in St Leonard Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex, and died Q3 1906 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 53.

General Notes: We saw William Edward's birth record, son of Henry and Elizabeth, New Inn Yard, weaver, in the parish registers at London Metropolitan Archives. He joined the Army at age 22 as a labourer, according to his service records at www.findmypast.com. He then spent five years in the Army, but he was then discharged on medical grounds. We see a bout of scarlet fever, then several months out with epilepsy and then discharge on the basis of palpitation. There had been no medical issues when he signed up. He appears to have to have spent some time in Ceylon.

We have confirmed by looking at the marriage record that this is the William who married Sarah Ann Hutchings (Mary Ann in a census) in 1891. They are in the 1891 census, with William showing an 1852 birthdate in Bethnal Green and occupation of waterside labourer.

But it's a bit of a puzzle that the marriage certificate identifies William as a bachelor and Sarah Anne Hutchings as a spinster since we have the 1881 census showing William with a wife Sarah (different from Sarah Anne Hutchings) and children, and since the 1891 census shows William with Hutchings stepchildren! We're not sure of this, but we have no record of Henry and Amelia as Estall's, the children with William and (first) Sarah in 1881, nor of William and (first) Sarah's marriage. We suspect that in the next census of 1891, this Sarah is Sarah French married to a William French, with Henry, Amelia and other children still living in Lewisham. If that's correct, then William Estall and Sarah weren't married in the 1881 census.

We believe that Sarah Anne Hutchings is the Sarah Estall who died 1899, Bethnal Green, and the death certificate supports this. She died of acute meningitis. And we now know that William is the William 'Estell' we see in the Bethnal Green workhouse in 1901, although the birthdate is listed as 1845 rather than 1852. We also now know that at least one of the Hutchings stepchildren, Thomas, ended up in the Bethnal Green Union Schools by 1901.

Now we've seen the Poor Law Rough Examination Records for St Matthews, Bethnal Green and it's confirmed much of what we suspected regarding William and Sarah Hutchings' family. We also now have the birth record of Thomas Hutchings (b 1890) showing that his mother was unmarried when she had him and that she had him at the workhouse. Shortly thereafter, she and William married and we suspect that all the Hutchings children are William's as at least Harriett, Rose and the youngest children, James and Robert, were born at the same address (Quinn's Buildings, Russia Lane). The Poor Law Records tell us that after Sarah (Hutchings) died at the Infirmary giving birth to Robert, William applied for help in 1900. He identified seven children. William was ill in infirmary. Thomas, Susan and Rose were put in the Leytonstone School, Bethnal Green's workhouse school at Essex. Bessie (Betty) and Robert (at 4 and 8 months) were in infirmary. We believe it says Harriett was in service and we lose track of her. And we can't read what happened to James, but we believe he was in some sort of children's home. We believe that William took the children out of the workhouse in 1901, but clearly they were put back in at some point. Bessie and Susan were sent to Canada in 1906, perhaps because William passed away in 1906. We think they made it through the trip and only hope they met with better conditions in their new homeland. Rosie eventually left the workhouse at age 14, we believe being discharged to a family in Kent for service. Now we know that she and James were adopted as they were with their new family in 1911. We don't know the circumstances of Tom's departure but he was in the military under 'Thomas Estall' by age 17, although tragically he appears to have committed suicide before the age of 20. We lose track of the little one and can only hope that he survived and was placed with a good family. We believe we see the death record of James many years later in 1964, perhaps Robert was given a new surname.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With Whitmarsh grandparents in 1891, listed as Ann 'Whitmarsh'. In 1901, Ann is identified as 'Mary A. Estall', a boarder at the home of her aunt Elizabeth (nee Whitmarsh) and George Meecham and her grandfather Henry Whitmarsh. Marriage record in BMD. We now have Ann's marriage certificate, identifying her father as William Estall and witnessed by her mother who signed as Sarah Estall. With husband, children and brothers-in-law in 1911.

Ann married Hugh Duffy, son of Hugh Duffy and Sarah M., on 23 Apr 1905 in St Saviour, Lewisham, London, Kent. Hugh was born about 1883 in Sydenham, Lewisham, London, Kent. They had eight children: Hugh George, James, George, George, John, William, Francis and Robert.

8-Hugh George Duffy was born Q4 1905 in Lewisham, London, Kent.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. With parents in 1911.

8-James Duffy was born Q1 1908 in Lewisham, London, Kent.

8-George Duffy was born Q1 1910 in Lewisham, London, Kent and died Q1 1910 in Lewisham, London, Kent.

8-John Duffy was born Q3 1913 in Lewisham, London, Kent.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD.

8-William Duffy

8-Francis Duffy

8-Robert Duffy

William next married Sarah Ann Hutchings, daughter of William Hutchings and Harriet Montgomery, on 2 Mar 1891 in St James the Great, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. Sarah was born on 7 May 1860 in Woolwich, London, Kent, was baptised on 1 Jun 1860 in St Mary Magdalene, Woolwich, London, Kent, and died on 24 Dec 1899 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex aged 39. They had eight children: Alfred, Harriett, Thomas, Bessie, Susan, Rosie, James Estall and Robert.

7-Alfred Hutchings was born about 1884 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and died Q1 1894 in Hackney, London, Middlesex aged about 10.

General Notes: With mother and stepfather in 1891. We're not positive that this is Alfred's death, since it's under 'Alfred Estall' but we don't know of other Alfred's born circa 1884 who died young, Alfred was living with his mother and stepfather, William Estall, at the time he died.

7-Harriett Hutchings was born about 1887 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: With mother and stepfather in 1891. We suspect that this is Harriet 'Hodson' in 1901 at the Bethnal Green Union School at Leytonstone.

7-Thomas Hutchings was born on 11 Jul 1889 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, died on 8 Sep 1910 in Cairo, Egypt aged 21, and was buried on 9 Sep 1910 in English Cemetery, Cairo, Egypt.

General Notes: We now know that this is Thomas Hutchins in the Bethnal Green Union Schools in 1901, the same school in Leyton, Essex as his Estall half-sisters. We also now know this is the Thomas 'Estall' who enlisted in the Army at Winchester in 1907, stating he was 21 (was actually about 17), service number 2451. He gave his next of kin as an 'Estall' sister (we think it says Rose) address at the Bethnal Green Road School, Victoria Road. He appears to have died in 1910 from a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head. He was in the Coldstream Guards. His sister Rose, when discharged from the workhouse in 1911 at age 14 identified Tom as her next of kin, a member of the Rifle Brigade. Clearly, she had not been told of his untimely death.

7-Bessie Estall was born on 16 Apr 1891 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 3 May 1891 in St John, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex. Other names for Bessie were Betsy - and Elizabeth -.

General Notes: We have Bessie's birth certificate identifying her parents. We've now seen her baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, under 'Betsy'. She was born at 11 Museum Buildings. In 1901 census in Bethnal Green Infirmary (associated with workhouse/children's school) and identified as a pauper patient. This must be the Bessie who sailed to Quebec in 1906 with her sister Susan. They sailed from Liverpool on the Tunisian 26 Jul 1906 arriving Quebec 3 Aug 1906. General Notes: We saw Samuel's baptism record, son of William and Sarah, in the parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. Listed as a soldier on his daughter's marriage certificate in 1837. We also saw Samuel's marriage record, witnessed by William Estall senior and Elizabeth Estall. We don't know who Elizabeth is.

Both the first and second marriage are in Pallott's, with Samuel being listed as a widow in the second (Elizabeth is a spinster). Sarah Estall, presumably Samuel's mother, witnesses the second marriage.

We have now seen Samuel's burial record in the St Matthew parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. He was 39 and living at Turk's Court.

We assume the following record, available from the a2a website, is Samuel's discharge from the Army:

5-Samuel William Estall was born about 1810 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and died Q4 1844 aged about 34.

General Notes: We have no record of Samuel's birth, but we've now seen him, like his sister Sarah, listed at www.rma-searcher.co.uk as being admitted to The Royal Military Asylum, Chelsea. He was admitted at age 8 on 2/20/1819 and discharged 10/9/1823 apprenticed to the Grenadier Guards. His marriage certificate identifies him as a soldier and the son of a soldier named Samuel Estall. His marriage certificate also identifies him as a bachelor and Teresa as a spinster.

Samuel married Teresa Kemble, daughter of John Kemble and Unknown, on 29 Jul 1844 in Westminster, London, Middlesex. Teresa was born about 1816 in Burwell, Oxfordshire, died in Sep 1857 in Westminster, London, Middlesex aged about 41, and was buried on 16 Sep 1857 in St Margaret, Westminster, London, Middlesex.

5-Sarah Ann Estall was born on 28 Jun 1811 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 9 Aug 1811 in St Matthew, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died on 30 Oct 1891 in Narrandera, New South Wales, Australia aged 80.

General Notes: Although the age is slightly off from when she enters school, we believe that Sarah's baptism record is in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, identified as the daughter of Samuel and Ann (Martha Ann?) Estow. We see Sarah listed at www.rma-searcher.co.uk as admitted to the Royal Military Asylum, Chelsea at age 7, where her parents are identified as Samuel, 43rd Regiment of Foot. Monmouthshire Regt. on 6/26/1820. She was discharged 7/5/1826. The school for servicemen's children still exists today as the Duke of York's Royal Military School and was originally started in the 1700s for orphaned or destitute children of servicemen.

Marriage record for Joseph Hilton and Sarah Ann Estal (note misspelling) is in BMD and we've seen it in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Emigrated to Australia on the Queen Victoria arriving 26 July 1841, occupation Domestic Servant in 1841. Buried at Church of England Cemetery, Narrandera.

General Notes: Baptised as William Robert at Sion Chapel, son of Samuel and Elizabeth. We have a copy of this baptism record. We have also seen a baptism record for him in the St Matthew parish registers at London Metropolitan Archives on 6 Oct 1816, also under 'William Robert'. He is identified as the son of Samuel (weaver) and Elizabeth, living on King Street. Listed in IGI as son of Samuel and Elizabeth. We believe this is the William Estall identified as an Army Deserter at the age of 21 from the Grenadier Guards. We also believe that the Army must have caught up with him and this is the Robert William Estell in the 1851 census, drummer in 2nd Battalion of Grenadier Guards in Winchester. Name indexed as 'Estell' but original form says 'Estall'. Single in the 1851 census. In 1871, he is under 'William' (Wilm), with his wife (under 'Susan'), mother-in-law and sister-in-law, still living at 11 Moreton Terrace where his first wife Fanny died.

We have the marriage certificate for his third marriage (Mary Ann Williams), where he is identified as a widower and a tailor.

His death is under Robert William Estall.

General Notes: Death record in BMD, but we haven't found a birth record. Given the early death of Frances, we're assuming it was related to a childbirth and William is the only Estall child born in St George Hanover Square in this timeframe. We've now seen William's burial and can confirm these are William's parents, based on the street address. The burial is listed at www.bmdregisters.co.uk:

General Notes: We have seen Richard's baptism record at Guildhall Library and in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Identified as a sawyer on the baptism records of Hannah and Ann. Identified as a mariner on daughter Silvia's baptism record. We assume that Richard was a mariner who became a sawyer when he had his family. 3-Mary Estall was born in Sep 1754 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 18 Sep 1754 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, and died circa 1851 aged 97.

General Notes: We saw Mary's baptism record, daughter of John and Mary at White's Yard, in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. Her name was spelled 'Eastall'. Also, Mary is referenced in her brother Edward's will, where her husband James is named. Her marriage is in Pallott's, under 'Estell', and in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Banns are under 'Estall'. Mary is still living in the 1841 and 1851 censuses, with her daughter Mary and grandchildren (even a great grandchild in 1851). She's identified as being 97 years old!

James' and Mary's marriage was witnessed by James Estall and Rowland Pollard, as shown in the St Mary Whitechapel register at London Metropolitan Archives. We assume that this James Estall is Mary's brother who married the same year in the same church, and we've identified James Pollard's parents in the IGI based on Rowland's name but we believe the witness is James' brother Rowland.

BMD Index & Church Records:

4-William Estall was born in Feb 1774 in Walthamstow, West Ham, London, Essex, was baptised on 13 Feb 1774 in Walthamstow, West Ham, London, Essex, died in 1820 in Stepney, London, Middlesex aged 46, and was buried on 2 Jan 1820 in Gibraltar Row, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: This is a best guess based on the evidence we currently have. But information in the 1700s is very incomplete and new evidence could change this. We know that a William was christened in 1774, with parents identified as William and Mary Estall. We also know that when this William married, his marriage was witnessed by William Estall Senior and Elizabeth Estall, the same people who witnessed the marriage of Samuel Estall to Martha Haynes in 1807. We also know that this William as well as his two sons were buried at Gibraltar Row Dissident's Cemetery, where our William of 1771 and his wife were also buried. When they had their children, William and Sarah were living on Holywell Lane, the same place that Ann Mary Ardouin was born in 1807.

Our thinking is that this William was born illegitimately to Mary, who didn't marry until the age of 30. Perhaps her brother William of 1749 went with her to get this William baptised, but it seems that it's a real possibility that this William was raised with the other children of William of 1749, all of whom were about the same age as this William. This would explain how this William also became a weaver and was buried in the same Dissident's Cemetery likely due to Sarah Bay's Huguenot ancestry. The burial record says William was 47 years old in 1820 and from Spitalfields. His burial record is in the non-conformist records at BMDregisters.co.uk.

We need to check William's baptism record held at Chelmsford, Essex to see if it tells us more about his parents. His marriage record is in the IGI and we've seen it at London Metropolitan Archives. He was a bachelor, Sarah was a spinster and the witnesses were William Estall Senior and Elizabeth Estall. We believe William Estall Senior refers to William born 1749. We don't know who the parents of William's wife, Sarah, are, but maybe there's another line of Estall's still around in the 1700s other than the children of John and Mary. Perhaps the witness Elizabeth Estall is her mother, possibly Elizabeth Bozwood, wife of Richard?

We've seen the marriage record for William's second marriage in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. Both William and Ann are identified as widowed. The marriage is witnessed by William Estall.

Metropolitan Archives. Children are identified in IGI. When son George (1783) was born, they were living at Great Garden Street. However, they were back at White's Yard by 1787.

The marriage of George Estall to Rachael Goff appears in Pallots, where George is identified as a widow. Also in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. We are confident it's this George because his daughters' marriage certificates identify that their father was George, a plasterer, and one of the daughters (Ann) is living with mother Rachel in the 1841 census.

We believe George became an apprentice in 1775, ref London Apprenticeship Abstracts 1442-1850:

1775 Estele George, son of John, Whitechapel, Middlesex, to Richard Dixon, 3 Jan 1775, Plaisterers' Company

George later took on his brother Edward as an apprentice in 1786 and a fellow called Slade George in 1800.

Now we've seen the baptism records of George and Rachael's children at Westminster Archives, St John the Evangelist Smith Square parish records. Later his nephew Thomas and wife Sophia Gumbrell live in this parish. We've also seen George in Holden's Triennial Directory of 1805/6/7 on ancestry.co.uk, listed as a plasterer living at Smith Square. We've seen his burial record in the parish registers at Westminster Archives.

We've reviewed the rate books at Westminster Archives and see that George and his wife Rachael moved into the Smith Square address in 1802, the first Estall's to live there, and remained there until George's death in 1911. Then we believe nephew Thomas (son of Thomas) moved into the Smith Square address. Widowed Rachel appears at a King's Head Court address (connected to St John Street which later becomes the residence of Thomas' children) by 1815. In the rate books, she's listed as Rachel Goff which is crossed out and then 'Rachael Hester' is written beside the cross out.

Mary's son William George is informant on the death certificate of Esther Estall, born c 1789. Based on this, we think this Esther is George Estall and Esther Moody's daughter and that Mary is a hitherto unknown sister of Esther. We've looked for Mary's birth record in the St Botolph without Aldgate register at London Metropolitan Archives (which is where she says she was born in the 1851 census), but we haven't yet found it.

Location Information: Pozieres is a village 6 kilometres north-east of the town of Albert. The Memorial encloses Pozieres British Cemetery which is a little south-west of the village on the north side of the main road, D929, from Albert to Pozieres. On the road frontage is an open arcade terminated by small buildings and broken in the middle by the entrance and gates. Along the sides and the back, stone tablets are fixed in the stone rubble walls bearing the names of the dead grouped under their Regiments. It should be added that, although the memorial stands in a cemetery of largely Australian graves, it does not bear any Australian names. The Australian soldiers who fell in France and whose graves are not known are commemorated on the National Memorial at Villers-Bretonneux.

Historical Information: The POZIERES MEMORIAL relates to the period of crisis in March and April 1918 when the Allied Fifth Army was driven back by overwhelming numbers across the former Somme battlefields, and the months that followed before the Advance to Victory, which began on 8 August 1918. The Memorial commemorates over 14,000 casualties of the United Kingdom and 300 of the South African Forces who have no known grave and who died on the Somme from 21 March to 7 August 1918. The Corps and Regiments most largely represented are The Rifle Brigade with over 600 names, The Durham Light Infantry with approximately 600 names, the Machine Gun Corps with over 500, The Manchester Regiment with approximately 500 and The Royal Horse and Royal Field Artillery with over 400 names. The memorial encloses POZIERES BRITISH CEMETERY, Plot II of which contains original burials of 1916, 1917 and 1918, carried out by fighting units and field ambulances. The remaining plots were made after the Armistice when graves were brought in from the battlefields immediately surrounding the cemetery, the majority of them of soldiers who died in the Autumn of 1916 during the latter stages of the Battle of the Somme, but a few represent the fighting in August 1918. There are now 2,755 Commonwealth servicemen of the First World War buried or commemorated in this cemetery. 1,375 of the burials are unidentified but there are special memorials to 23 casualties known or believed to be buried among them. The cemetery and memorial were designed by W.H. Cowlshaw, with sculpture by Laurence A. Turner. The memorial was unveiled by Sir Horace Smith-Dorrien on 4 August 1930.

Godewaersvelde is a village near the Belgian border, about 16 kilometres south-west of Ieper (in Belgium), and is half-way between Poperinge (in Belgium) and Hazebrouck (in France). The British Cemetery is a little east of the village. Historical Information: The cemetery was begun in July 1917 when three casualty clearing stations were moved to Godewaersvelde. The 37th and the 41st buried in it until November 1917, the 11th until April 1918, and from April to August 1918, during the German offensive in Flanders, field ambulance and fighting units carried on the burials. After the Armistice, the graves of five soldiers of the 110th Brigade, Royal Field Artillery were brought in from a point nearer the Mont des Cats and in May 1953, four graves in Godewaersvelde Churchyard were moved into the cemetery. A considerable French plot was made on the terrace at the higher end of the cemetery in May and June 1918, but these graves were later removed. Godewaersvelde British Cemetery now contains 972 Commonwealth burials of the First World War, and 19 German war graves. The cemetery was designed by Sir Herbert Baker.

Country: France
Locality: Aisne

Visiting Information: Names are listed on the memorial by Regiments in order of precedence, under the title of each Regiment by rank, and under each rank alphabetically.

Location Information: The town of Soissons stands on the left bank of the River Aisne, approximately 100 kilometres north-east of Paris. From R.N.2 (Soissons bypass coming from Paris/Meaux/Compiègne/Rouen or from Laon): Exit the R.N.2 dual carriageway at the Reims exit and turn right (coming from Laon) or turn left (coming from Paris/Meaux/Compiègne/ Rouen) at the traffic lights and head into the town. After crossing the railway bridge, bear left onto Rue de Villeneuve, keeping the railway marshalling yards to your left to arrive at Soissons Railway Station. From Soissons Railway Station by foot/car: At the Railway Station traffic lights turn right onto the Avenue du General de Gaulle in the direction of the Centre Ville to the large roundabout (Place de la République). Take the second exit marked Centre Ville and bear right into the main street, Rue St. Martin (one-way). Continue along the Rue St. Martin until you see the Post Office (La Poste) on the right and then take the side road on the right, Rue du Mont Revers (one-way), immediately after the small chapel style building. The Soissons Memorial is situated to the rear of this building and is easily identified by its massive white Portland stone construction. There is parking available on the adjacent streets. The memorial register is kept at the Mairie where it may be consulted: pl Hôtel de Ville 02200 SOISSONS telephone: +33 3 23 59 90 00 Opening hours : 9.00 am -12.00 // 1.30 - 5.30 pm from Monday to Friday. Saturday : 9.00 am to 12.00 am.

Historical Information: The original British Expeditionary Force crossed the Aisne in August 1914 a few kilometres west of Soissons, and re-crossed it in September a few kilometres east. For the next three and a half years, this part of the front was held by French forces and the city remained within the range of German artillery. At the end of April 1918, five divisions of Commonwealth forces (IX Corps) were posted to the French 6th Army in this sector to rest and refit following the German offensives on the Somme and Lys. Here, at the end of May, they found themselves facing the overwhelming German attack which, despite fierce opposition, pushed the Allies back across the Aisne to the Marne. Having suffered 15,000 fatal casualties, IX Corps was withdrawn from this front in early July, but was replaced by XXII Corps, who took part in the Allied counter attack that had driven back the Germans by early August and recovered the lost ground. The Soissons Memorial commemorates almost 4,000 officers and men of the United Kingdom forces who died during the Battles of the Aisne and the Marne in 1918 and who have no known grave. The memorial was designed by G.H. Holt and V.O. Rees, with sculpture by Eric Kennington. It was unveiled by Sir Alexander Hamilton-Gordon on 22 July 1928.

Location Information: The Tyne Cot Memorial to the Missing forms the northeastern boundary of Tyne Cot Cemetery, which is located 9 kilometres north east of Ieper town centre, on the Tynecotstraat, a road leading from the Zonnebeekseweg (N332). The names of those from United Kingdom units are inscribed on Panels arranged by Regiment under their respective Ranks. The names of those from New Zealand units are inscribed on panels within the New Zealand Memorial Apse located at the centre of the Memorial.
Historical Information: The Tyne Cot Memorial is one of four memorials to the missing in Belgian Flanders which cover the area known as the Ypres Salient. Broadly speaking, the Salient stretched from Langemarck in the north to the northern edge in

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

Ploegsteert Wood in the south, but it varied in area and shape throughout the war. The Salient was formed during the First Battle of Ypres in October and November 1914, when a small British Expeditionary Force succeeded in securing the town before the onset of winter, pushing the German forces back to the Passchendaele Ridge. The Second Battle of Ypres began in April 1915 when the Germans released poison gas into the Allied lines north of Ypres. This was the first time gas had been used by either side and the violence of the attack forced an Allied withdrawal and a shortening of the line of defence. There was little more significant activity on this front until 1917, when in the Third Battle of Ypres an offensive was mounted by Commonwealth forces to divert German attention from a weakened French front further south. The initial attempt in June to dislodge the Germans from the Messines Ridge was a complete success, but the main assault north-eastward, which began at the end of July, quickly became a dogged struggle against determined opposition and the rapidly deteriorating weather. The campaign finally came to a close in November with the capture of Passchendaele. The German offensive of March 1918 met with some initial success, but was eventually checked and repulsed in a combined effort by the Allies in September. The battles of the Ypres Salient claimed many lives on both sides and it quickly became clear that the commemoration of members of the Commonwealth forces with no known grave would have to be divided between several different sites. The site of the Menin Gate was chosen because of the hundreds of thousands of men who passed through it on their way to the battlefields. It commemorates those of all Commonwealth nations, except New Zealand, who died in the Salient, in the case of United Kingdom casualties before 16 August 1917 (with some exceptions). Those United Kingdom and New Zealand servicemen who died after that date are named on the memorial at Tyne Cot, a site which marks the furthest point reached by Commonwealth forces in Belgium until nearly the end of the war. Other New Zealand casualties are commemorated on memorials at Buttes New British Cemetery and Messines Ridge British Cemetery. The TYNE COT MEMORIAL now bears the names of almost 35,000 officers and men whose graves are not known. The memorial, designed by Sir Herbert Baker with sculpture by Joseph Armitage and F.V. Blundstone, was unveiled by Sir Gilbert Dyett 20 June 1927. The memorial forms the north-eastern boundary of TYNE COT CEMETERY, which was established around a captured German blockhouse or pill-box used as an advanced dressing station. The original battlefield cemetery of 343 graves was greatly enlarged after the Armistice when remains were brought in from the battlefields of Passchendaele and Langemarck, and from a few small burial grounds. It is now the largest Commonwealth war cemetery in the world in terms of burials. At the suggestion of King George V, who visited the cemetery in 1922, the Cross of Sacrifice was placed on the original large pill-box. There are three other pill-boxes in the cemetery. There are now 11,956 Commonwealth servicemen of the First World War buried or commemorated in Tyne Cot Cemetery, 8,369 of these are unidentified. The cemetery was designed by Sir Herbert Baker.

3-Thomas Estall was born in 1766 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 19 Oct 1766 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, and died on 20 Jun 1845 in Newington, London, Surrey aged 79.

General Notes: Birth date and marriage identified in IGI. BMD image of death record. We saw Thomas' baptism record, son of John and Mary of White's Yard, at London Metropolitan Archives in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney register. We believe it is this Thomas who can be found in the bindings index of the Company of Watermen & Lightermen of the River Thames. He was apprenticed 10 Aug 1786 under his master, James Pollard, and he was freed on 29 Aug 1793. This must be the James Pollard who married Thomas' sister Mary and is referenced in his brother Edward's will. We've seen Thomas and Sarah's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, witnessed by George Estall who we assume to be Thomas' brother. In 1805, Thomas became master to his son James. Still living in the 1841 census in Newington, Surrey. Looking at their children's birth records, it appears that Thomas and Sarah continued to live at or near Thomas' parents in White's Yard. Thomas is referenced in his brother Edward's will.

We now have Thomas' death certificate. He died of old age and was living at Northampton Place, North Street, identified as a waterman. Informant was Mary Stokes (we haven't identified her yet).

Thomas married Sarah Austin on 24 Aug 1788 in Christ Church Spitalfields, Stepney, London, Middlesex. Sarah was born about 1765 and died on 4 Apr 1839 in Newington, London, Surrey aged about 74. They had ten children: Thomas, James, John, Sarah, Sarah Rebecca, Susanna, Charles, William Henry, Richard and George.

4-Thomas Estall was born in 1788 in Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 26 Oct 1788 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, died on 10 Dec 1835 in Westminster, London, Middlesex aged 47, and was buried on 18 Dec 1835 in St Margaret, Westminster, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw Thomas' baptism record, son of Thomas and Sarah of Rosemary Lane, in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. Thomas' parents and marriage in IGI. We've now seen their marriage record in the St Martin in the Field parish register at Westminster Archives. Both are from the parish and the marriage is witnessed by John Gumbrell, perhaps Sophia's father. We've also now seen that Thomas was a plasterer living on St John Street, according to his childrens' baptism records in the St Margaret's, Westminster register. He appears in the Westminster Register of Electors in 1834, identified as being on St John St and, although not a freeman, entitled to vote in the parliamentary elections with the qualification 'Scot and Lot' (rather than 'House'). This means that he earned his right to vote by paying contributions to the upkeep of borough facilities. He was listed again in 1835, with the address identified as 'Smith Square'. Although Thomas and Sophia die before the 1841 census, six of their children can be found together in the 1841 and 1851 censuses. The other two living children are in school together in 1841.

We believe Thomas was a plasterer (or a builder/plasterer) and that it is this Thomas who was originally identified as an administrator for a will drawn up by Thomas Carey Palmer in 1834. It seems likely that the two Thomas' were business partners. But Thomas Estall died in 1835, before Thomas Palmer did in 1839. Upon Thomas Estall's death, Thomas Palmer added a change to his will to identify an alternative administrator. We believe Thomas Estall left a substantial sum of money to his family based on PPC Administration records, presumably from his success in business. We need to get a copy of the administration record and place it online. We've seen Thomas' burial record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He was 47 years old and living at Smith Square when he died.

Thomas married Sophia Gumbrell, daughter of John Gumbrell and Hannah -, on 8 Oct 1812 in St Martin in the Field, Westminster, London, Middlesex. Sophia was born about 1792 in London, died on 9 Jan 1831 in Westminster, London, Middlesex aged about 39, and was buried on 14 Jan 1831 in St Margaret, Westminster, London, Middlesex. They had ten children: George, Thomas John, Sophia Gumbrell, Mary Ann, Edward Austin, Eliza Martin, Emma Robson, Alfred Charles, William Henry and Thomas Gladstone.

5-George Estall was born in Aug 1813 in Westminster, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 8 Aug 1813 in Westminster, London, Middlesex, and died on 2 Mar 1879 in Islington, London, Middlesex aged 65.

General Notes: Plasterer at time of marriage to Fanny Wicker. We believe it is this George who is listed in the 1843 Post Office Directory as George Estall, builder, Robson & Estall, 17 Abchurch Lane, 11 Finsbury St and 13 St John St, Westminster. George's father Thomas was partnered with Robson until his death. We've seen George and Fanny's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He's identified as a builder living in Mile End. The marriage was witnessed by George's sister, Mary Ann, and Fanny's father, Thomas. In 1851 census as George 'Eastall', Inspector of Works, with wife and sons indexed as 'Eustall'. The image says 'Eastall'. With wife and children in 1851, under 'Eustall', Inspector of Works Eastern Union Railway living in Norwich, Norfolk. With wife and children in 1861. With wife and children in 1871, under 'Estatt'.

We suspect that this is the 'Mr Estall' referred to in various London newspapers in 1847-1848 who may have been visiting his neighbour Mrs Gadsby a bit too frequently for her husband's liking. Mr Estall was never found guilty but the reports made by Mrs Gadsby's servants make for quite an exciting read (in the Victorian sense!).

The National Portrait Gallery in London has 87 portraits in a sketchbook done by an unknown artist, George Estall, painting in the late 1800s (at least 1867-1879). We don't know who this George is, but we suspect it is our George Estall of 1813 or possibly his son, George. We'll try to view the sketches and see if we can learn more.

22 March. Administration of the Personal Estate of George Estall late of 16 Cambridge-terrace Arundel-square Barnsbury Islington in the County of Middlesex who died 2 March 1879 at 16 Cambridge-terrace was granted at the Principal Registry to Fanny Estall of Claremont-road Forest Gate in the County of Essex Widow the Relict.

George married Fanny Wicker, daughter of John Thomas Wicker and Mary Anne Ham, on 9 Jul 1842 in All Saints, Mile End New Town, London, Middlesex. Fanny was born on 4 Jan 1815 in Limehouse, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 29 Jan 1815 in St Anne, Limehouse, London, Middlesex, and died on 28 Feb 1895 in Wandsworth, London, Surrey aged 80. They had two children: George and Thomas.

6-George Estall was born Q2 1843 in Westminster, London, Middlesex, died on 1 Jun 1921 in Kensington, London, Middlesex aged 78, and was buried on 3 Jun 1921 in Highgate Cemetery, Kensington, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: With parents in 1871, under 'Estatt'. Civil Engineer, Great Eastern Railway. We've seen George's marriage to Jane in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, witnessed by George's father. We don't think George and Jane had any children. They had none in the 1881 census, then in the 1891 census Jane is away and he's living with his mother. Also note that his widowed cousin Louisa H. Stevens is staying with the family in the 1891 census. In fact, in 1901 (under 'Estell'), George is still living with Louisa and he is identified as married and a civil engineer with a professional designation of 'MICE'. His wife, Jane, is living in Portsmouth, identified as married and the wife of a civil engineer. In 1911, he and Louisa are in Sussex. George marries Louisa shortly after Jane's death in 1914 and we've seen this marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. He appears to have stayed in London until late in life, when he moved to Sussex with Louisa.

Also, there is an extensive article in The Times of 2 Aug 1920 upon the death of Thomas which provides an excellent summary of his career.

Thomas married Emily Tilley, daughter of George Tilley and Henrietta -, on 12 Sep 1877 in St Clement Danes, Westminster, London, Middlesex. Cemetery: BOULOGNE EASTERN CEMETERY
Country: France

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

Locality: Pas de Calais

Location Information: Boulogne-sur-Mer is a large Channel port. Boulogne Eastern Cemetery, one of the town cemeteries, lies in the district of St Martin Boulogne, just beyond the eastern (Chateau) corner of the Citadel (Haute-Ville). The cemetery is a large civil cemetery, split in two by the Rue de Dringhen, just south of the main road (RN42) to St Omer. The Commonwealth War Graves plot is located down the western edge of the southern section of the cemetery, with an entrance in the Rue de Dringhen. Car parking is available along the Rue de Dringhen.

Historical Information: Boulogne, was one of the three base ports most extensively used by the Commonwealth armies on the Western Front throughout the First World War. It was closed and cleared on the 27 August when the Allies were forced to fall back ahead of the German advance, but was opened again in October and from that month to the end of the war, Boulogne and Wimereux formed one of the chief hospital areas. Until June 1918, the dead from the hospitals at Boulogne itself were buried in the Cimetiere de L'Est, one of the town cemeteries, the Commonwealth graves forming a long, narrow strip along the right hand edge of the cemetery. In the spring of 1918, it was found that space was running short in the Eastern Cemetery in spite of repeated extensions to the south, and the site of the new cemetery at Terlincthun was chosen. During the Second World War, hospitals were again posted to Boulogne for a short time in May 1940. The town was taken by the Germans at the end of that month and remained in their hands until recaptured by the Canadians on 22 September 1944. Boulogne Eastern Cemetery contains 5,577 Commonwealth burials of the First World War and 224 from the Second World War. The Commonwealth plots were designed by Charles Holden.

From Wikipedia, the free online encyclopaedia:

Born in 1918, Gould was the son of Rupert Gould, the restorer of John Harrison's chronometers, and Muriel Estall. Gould was educated at Kingswood House preparatory school, near Epsom, and then at Westminster School. After leaving school he studied at the Courtauld Institute. During the Second World War he served as Pilot Officer Gould in R.A.F. Intelligence, first in Egypt from 1941 to 1943, and then in Normandy, France. After the war he joined the National Gallery staff in 1946, and worked there until his retirement in 1987. He was Keeper and Deputy Director for the last five years of his tenure. He was a prolific author, publishing many books and articles during his career.

In 1970, Gould established that the National Gallery's portrait of Pope Julius II was the original by Raphael and not a copy, as had previously been thought. He was also responsible for a new attribution of a work by Michelangelo.

In his last years Gould lived with his sister Jocelyne Stacey in the village of Thorncombe, west Dorset. He developed a brain tumour and after a short illness, died on April 7, 1994. Gould never married and was survived by Jocelyne.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD. We've seen Edith's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. It says she was born in 1872, but this must be a mistake since her BMD birth record says Q4 1871. When she was baptised in 1888, she was living at 6 Lancaster Gate. In 1881 census with parents, also in BMD. Working as a cook in 1901 at the same place as where her future husband George was working as a butler. Marriage in BMD. With husband in 1911, visitors in Christchurch, Hampshire. George is identified as a domestic butler. Possibly they were on their honeymoon? Assume they had no children given her age at marriage.

Historical Information: After the First World War, an appropriate way had to be found of commemorating those members of the Royal Navy who had no known grave, the majority of deaths having occurred at sea where no permanent memorial could be provided. An Admiralty committee recommended that the three manning ports in Great Britain - Chatham, Plymouth and Portsmouth - should each have an identical memorial of unmistakable naval form, an obelisk, which would serve as a leading mark for shipping. The memorials were designed by Sir Robert Lorimer, who had already carried out a considerable amount of work for the Commission, with sculpture by Henry Poole. After the Second World War it was decided that the naval memorials should be extended to provide space for commemorating the naval dead without graves of that war, but since the three sites were dissimilar, a different architectural treatment was required for each. The architect for the Second World War extension at Chatham was Sir Edward Maufe (who also designed the Air Forces memorial at Runnymede) and the additional sculpture was by Charles Wheeler and William McMillan. Chatham Naval Memorial commemorates more than 8,500 sailors of the First World War and over 10,000 from the Second World War.

In 1945, we see Marion and her daughter Phyllis Joan as a passenger on the same ship travelling from Australia to New York. Her last permanent residence is listed as Sydney.

6-Thomas Henry Usher Estall was born on 2 Jun 1874 in Liverpool, Lancashire and died on 24 Jul 1938 in Bolton, Lancashire aged 64.

General Notes: Butcher in 1891. Note that the marriage record says 'Thomas Henry', not 'Thomas Usher'. We believe, based on the marriage record and our belief that Thomas Henry is their first son, that his name is probably 'Thomas Henry Usher'. There are two other London Thomas Henry's born about the time that Thomas Usher was, but the marriage is in Liverpool (same as Thomas Usher's birthplace). Also his son, Percy G., died in WWII and is listed on the Commonwealth War Graves website as having parents, Thomas Usher and Matilda Birnett (Birkett). With Matilda and children in 1901 (under 'Eotall') and 1911, draper's manager.

We have no marriage record for Thomas and Sarah Ann Hodgins (Hewitt), but they are identified as the parents on daughter Louisa's birth certificate of 1917. Thomas is identified as a draper's manager. There are bastardy orders on Thomas Usher Estall and Sarah Ann Hewitt 28 Oct 1918 and 20 Feb 1925, Bolton.

The marriage to Florence Nightingale Smith after the death of Matilda, Thomas' first wife, is in the BMD. We also see a divorce order by Matilda in 1924, on the a2a (www.nationalarchives.gov.uk) website:

7-Charles Frederick Estall was born on 17 Apr 1894 in Lancashire and died in Jun 1977 in Bolton, Lancashire aged 83.

General Notes: There is a death record for Charles Frederick Estall, but we think he may have been born as a Birkett. Need to find his birth certificate to confirm. He is identified as an Estall on his daughter Barbara's marriage certificate, working as a textile worker. Charles is not with Thomas and Matilda in 1901 (they are under the surname 'Eotall') which may indicate that Charles was not Thomas' son. With Thomas and Matilda in 1911, warehouse boy.

According to an a2a (www.nationalarchives.gov.uk) record, Charles had some involvement in a divorce case. We've now seen the divorce papers at Kew, which identifies that Charles and Olive were having an affair. The final decree was in 1923, when Jethro and Olive's marriage was dissolved:

William Henry started a grocers shop and had three by the time he died. His 3 living sons each ran one of the shops for him, though William Henry was in overall charge and worked up until he died. The shops were old fashioned grocers which cut their own bacon and blended their own tea. The shops were called 'Wm. Estall and Sons.' And were in the Harpurhey and Longsight areas of Manchester. William Henry was president of the Grocers Institute at one point and was awarded an MBE in the 1950s. William Henry's M.B.E. is in the London Gazette. He was awarded in 1952. Country: France

Visiting Information: The Panel (or Bay) numbers quoted at the end of each entry relate to the panels dedicated to the Regiment served with. In some instances where a casualty is recorded as attached to another Regiment, his name may alternatively appear within their Regimental Panels (or Bays). Please refer to the on-site Memorial Register Introduction to determine the alternative Panel (or Bay) numbers if you do not find the name within the quoted Panel (or Bay). Wheelchair access to the cemetery is possible, but may be by alternative entrance. For further information regarding wheelchair access, please contact our Enquiries Section on 01628 507200. Location Information: The Arras Memorial is in the Faubourg-d'Amiens Cemetery, which is in the Boulevard du General de Gaulle in the western part of the town of Arras. The cemetery is near the Citadel, approximately 2 kilometres due west of the railway station.

Historical Information: The French handed over Arras to Commonwealth forces in the spring of 1916 and the system of tunnels upon which the town is built were used and developed in preparation for the major offensive planned for April 1917. The Commonwealth section of the FAUBOURG D'AMIENS CEMETERY was begun in March 1916, behind the French military cemetery established earlier. It continued to be used by field ambulances and fighting units until November 1918. The cemetery was enlarged after the Armistice when graves were brought in from the battlefields and from two smaller cemeteries in the vicinity. The cemetery contains 2,651 Commonwealth burials of the First World War. In addition, there are 30 war graves of other nationalities, most of them German. During the Second World War, Arras was occupied by United Kingdom forces headquarters until the town was evacuated on 23 May 1940. Arras then remained in German hands until retaken by Commonwealth and Free French forces on 1 September 1944. The cemetery contains seven Commonwealth burials of the Second World War. The graves in the French military cemetery were removed after the First World War to other burial grounds and the land they had occupied was used for the construction of the Arras Memorial and Arras Flying Services Memorial. The ARRAS MEMORIAL commemorates almost 35,000 servicemen from the United Kingdom, South Africa and New Zealand who died in the Arras sector between the spring of 1916 and 7 August 1918, the eve of the Advance to Victory, and have no known grave. The most conspicuous events of this period were the Arras offensive of April-May 1917, and the German attack in the spring of 1918. Canadian and Australian servicemen killed in these operations are commemorated by memorials at Vimy and Villers-Bretonneux. A separate memorial remembers those killed in the Battle of Cambrai in 1917. The ARRAS FLYING SERVICES MEMORIAL commemorates nearly 1,000 airmen of the Royal Naval Air Service, the Royal Flying Corps, and the Royal Air Force, either by attachment from other arms of the forces of the Commonwealth or by original enlistment, who were killed on the whole Western Front and who have no known grave. Both cemetery and memorial were designed by Sir Edwin Lutyens, with sculpture by Sir William Reid Dick.

Another child, Alexander Charles, is in the parish register of St Anne Limehouse and James Robert Martin is in the baptism records of St Dunstan in the East. And now we've found another child, Mary Ann, in the St Margaret's, Westminster register.

On Alexander's birth record, James is identified as a Lighterman. We have now seen James in the bindings index of the Company of Watermen & Lightermen of the River Thames. He was apprenticed to his father on 25 Apr 1805 (typical age was 14) and freed on 03 Sep 1812. James became master for apprentice George Richardson 01 Sep 1814. On his son Thomas' baptism record, he's a victualler living at Goodman's Yard. On his daughter Ruth's baptism record in 1816, however, James is identified as a victualler living in Houndsditch and on daughter Mary Ann's baptism record in 1818, he's identified as a publican living on Milbank St, Westminster. For Sophia and Alexander in 1820-22, he's a lighterman once again. In 1825, according to the baptism record of his son James, James is a Sergeant-at-Mace (Sergeant-at-Arms responsible for the mace, we don't know for what assembly). On daughter Jane's baptism record in 1827, he's identified as a sheriff's officer living in Houndsditch.

James married Ruth Sarah Hatcher on 23 May 1813 in Christ Church Spitalfields, Stepney, London, Middlesex. They had seven children: Thomas, Ruth Sarah, Mary Ann, Sophia Elizabeth, Alexander Charles, James Robert Martin and Jane Hellen.

5-Thomas Estall was born on 2 Jun 1814 in Stepney, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 21 Sep 1814 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: We saw Thomas' baptism record, son of James and Ruth of Goodman's Yard, in the St Mary Whitechapel parish register at London Metropolitan Archives. We can't be positive this is the Thomas who married Elisabeth Robertson in Australia, but we'll keep looking for more evidence. He is identified as a mason on his son Daniel's marriage certificate in 1882.

We assume that Thomas and Elizabeth moved from Canada to Tahiti between the birth of Arthur in 1861 and the marriage of William Henry in 1879. Maybe it was a bit too cold in Canada?

General Notes: Birth in New South Wales BMD, www.bdm.nsw.gov.au. We assume she died as an infant since there is a later child named Catherine.

6-Catherine Sophia Estall was born in 1845 in Sydney, New South Wales, Australia and was baptised on 8 Nov 1846 in St Lawrence, Sydney, New South Wales, Australia.

General Notes: Birth in New South Wales BMD, www.bdm.nsw.gov.au. Baptism in IGI.

General Notes: In IGI with parents. Birth in New South Wales BMD, www.bdm.nsw.gov.au, listed as 'James William Henry Estall'. We have James' baptism record. Marriage, children and death in IGI, under 'William Henry'. We think this is the same person who is recorded as 'James Thomas Estall' in the IGI.

James married Manuela Salas on 4 Jul 1879 in Papeete, French Polynesia. They had four children: William, Marcus Astor, James William and Marguerite.

7-William Estall was born circa 1880 in Papeete, French Polynesia.

General Notes: William's marriage and children are identified in the IGI, but not his parents. He's been placed with these parents based on his approximate birth date and place. Also, there's a picture on the Peyroux family website showing brothers William and Mark Estall in Tahiti, we believe in the late 1800s. We believe these are probably this William and brother Marcus.

General Notes: Birth, wives (?), children and death identified in IGI. Although two wives are identified, we're not confident that Ruivahine is correct, because the marriage dates and dates of the children's births don't make sense. Marriage date to Lucie is precise in the IGI for the 1890 date, but there's also a listing of 1873 as an alternative approximate date probably based on the children's birth dates.

General Notes: We've seen Ruth's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. They were living in Houndsditch. Ruth's marriage to John Neale is in the IGI and we've seen it in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. It was witnessed by her sister Sophia! We believe they split up before 1841, with John going on to have a large family with Ruth's sister Sophia. Ruth herself shows up in 1851 with Benjamin Marshall, at which point they have had several of the children. They and their children are together in 1851 and 1861. In 1871, Ruth and son Horatio are staying with her daughter Clara Butcher while her husband Benjamin and their son Benjamin Thomas are up working in Yorkshire. Then in 1878, one year before Ruth's death, we see them marrying! This marriage and Ruth's death record are in the BMD.

We would not have known about Ruth and Benjamin except that their daughter named a child 'Lionel Estall Sears'. We only stumbled upon Ruth and Benjamin in trying to track back why Lionel had 'Estall' as his middle name. Previously we had thought that Ruth had passed away before 1841. We now have their marriage certificate in 1878, showing Benjamin was a plasterer, bachelor son of John and showing Ruth Sarah Neale, widow, daughter of James Estall licensed victualler.

5-Sophia Elizabeth Estall was born on 29 Apr 1820 in Newington, London, Surrey and was baptised on 28 May 1820 in St Mary, Newington, London, Surrey.

General Notes: We've seen Sophia's baptism record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk. They were at Park Place Walworth in Newington, Southwark at the time. Female servant in 1841, under 'Sophia Estatt'. We believe John and his first wife, Ruth Sarah Estall, split up likely before 1841. Then we believe John and Ruth's sister, Sophia, stayed together and had a number of children, seen under the surname 'Neal' (1851, children in 1891), 'Neale' (children in 1871,1881) and 'Keal' (actually 'Neal' in 1861 image). However, at least some of these children -- including minimally, James, Mary Ann, John, Thomas and Alexander -- married using the 'Estall' surname (although son John reverted back to 'Neale' in censuses after his marriage) and we have the marriage certificates of four of these. Most show a mother of Sophia, one shows a father of John with no mother's name and some show Sophia and John 'Estall' or 'Estill'. Many, but not all, of the subsequent descendant children were named 'Estall'.

Sophia is with John and their children in 1851 under 'Neal', living at 17 Wolverley St. They have a coal business and two servants. They are at the same address in 1861 indexed as 'Keal'. Sophia appears in 1871 under 'Sophia Keen', listed as the wife of Thomas Keen. Four of her sons are with them and all are listed as firewood cutters under the surname 'Keen'. Probaby died before 1881 since Thomas is with two of her sons in 1881 and listed as a widow. This might be the 'Sophia Keen' who died in Hackney Q3 1875.

Florence married William Augustus Franklin, son of William Augustus Franklin and Mary Ann Isabella Leigh, on 4 Apr 1920 in St Leonard Shoreditch, Hackney, London, Middlesex. William was born on 1 Mar 1893 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex and was baptised on 2 Apr 1893 in St James the Great, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex.

6-Thomas George Estall was born on 24 Jan 1854 in Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 12 Feb 1854 in St James the Great, Bethnal Green, London, Middlesex, and died Q4 1935 in Poplar, London, Middlesex aged 81.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD, under 'Thomas George Neale'. We've seen his baptism record in the parish registers at London Metropolitan Archives, under 'Neal'. He was born at 17 Wolverly St. With parents in 1861, under surname 'Keal'. With brother James and James' wife in 1871, under surname 'Neale'. We have both of Thomas' marriage certificates now, under surname 'Estall'. The first one does not identify any father, but the wedding is witnessed by William Henry Estall (we assume this is his brother). The other witness is Eliza Ann Rushmer, sister of Mary Ann Duck, and in 1901 (after Mary Ann's death) we see Thomas and Mary Ann's daughter Rosina (Rose) living with the Rushmer's. Thomas is a wood cutter, living at 51 Canrobert St.

The second marriage certificate identifies Thomas as a widow. It lists his father as a carpenter and Thomas as a wood cutter. He was living at 1 St Pauls Road. Witnessed by Charles William Mortimer and Eliza Mortimer. We also have the birth record for their son Albert of 1911. Although Thomas' wife is referred to as Eliza in the 1901 census, we believe this is Elizabeth Noakes. We believe that his daughter in the census, Eliza, is also an Elizabeth.

Also, although Thomas is shown living with his family and his mother in the 1891 census, we believe the mother 'Ann' that he is living with is more likely his mother-in-law, Ann Duck. His mother-in-law Ann Duck was living with him in the 1901 census. We believe this is the Thomas Estall who was briefly in the Forest Gate Branch Workhouse in Jun 1908, identified as living at 6 Perring St. With wife and children in 1911, under 'Estel'. Builder, living at 256 Devons Road in Bow.

Rosina (Rose Estal) is living with the Rushmer's in the 1901 census, listed as a niece of John Rushmer and his wife Eliza (Mary Ann Duck's sister). Her birth date is incorrectly indexed in the 1901 census, due to a smeared image. She is working as a match girl in 1901. Her husband is identified in the IGI. Children's baptism records list mother as 'Rosina'. With husband and children in 1911. The census notes that she had lost one child by the time of the census.

General Notes: Thomas' birth and marriage records read 'Thomas Estall'. Assuming we've correctly matched the death record, it reads 'Thomas Henry Estall'. Thomas is with his parents and his sisters, Elizabeth and Ada, in the 1901 census. We have Thomas' birth record now, which verifies he was the son of Thomas and Elizabeth Noakes. With parents in 1911 under 'Estel'. We think that he may also be the same 'Thomas' who appears in 1911 at a school in Charlton, Lancashire, possibly an industrial school? We've seen Thomas' marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, identifying him as a stoker in the Royal Navy. Witnessed by his sister Ada. His death record is in the BMD.

We have Thomas' WW1 military papers, where he apparently put back his birth date by two years (to 1896 but same day of 23 Oct) presumably to make him seem older than he was. He enlisted in 1915 at the age of sixteen, with his civil employment listed as a baker.

General Notes: Birth record in BMD, under 'Alexander Charles Neale'. We have Alexander's birth certificate and have seen his baptism record in the parish registers at London Metropolitan Archives. Alexander is with parents and siblings in 1861 census, surname erroneously 'Keal'. Living at 17 Wolverley St, Hackney, Bethnal Green (same address as John and Sophia in 1841 and 1851, as well as brothers James and Thomas in 1871). With mother and Thomas Keen in 1871, under 'Alexander Keen'. 'Alexander Neal' in 1881, listed as a stepson of Thomas Keen (presumably Sophia passed away) and working as a building materials dealer. Marriage record in BMD and we now have the marriage certificate which is at ancestry.co.uk, witnessed by George Bickham. Note that Emma Jane Bickham went by 'Jenny' (as in marriage record). See the explanation on Alexander's mother, Sophia, to see why Alexander was married as an Estall (erroneously 'Esthell' in the 1891 census) but then shows up as 'Neal' in the 1901 census as well as in the Pubsindex. Also in the 1891 census, Alice Bickham is staying with Alexander and Emma as a servant. Dealer in builders' materials when son Alexander was born in 1885. According to son William's baptism record, they were living at Vyner St, Hackney in 1894, where Alexander was identified as a Licensed Victualler and his wife is identified as 'Emma Jane' (rather than her nickname 'Jenny').

Source of the following data is V. Estall:

Known as Alex. Alexander (Alex) and "Jenny" ran "The Victory" pub in Vyner Street, Hackney. They were there at the time of the 1891 census. Son Alexander George - Army Officer killed in 1st world war. Next of kin given as Alexander Charles Estau address 68 Exmouth Road, Walthamstow.

Verbally we were told that Alex and "Jenny" ran the Victory pub Vyner Street Hackney, which we have visited. Spelling ESTHELL on 1891 census. However from Pubsindex publican at The Victory in 1891 was Alexander Charles Neal. And even more confusing is 1901 census when they gave names as NEAL to census and Pubsindex. At that time they were running "Prince Ernest " 66 Clarissa Street Shoreditch.

Descendants of William Estall & Leah Holt (detail)

General Notes: We saw William's baptism record, son of Thomas and Sarah of Brace's Buildings, in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney parish register at London Metropolitan Archives.

We've seen William and Eliza's marriage record in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, witnessed by William's father as well as Eliza's sisters Sarah and Catherine. According to son George's burial record, they were living at Lower Marsh, Lambeth in 1830. William Henry does not appear in the 1841 or later censuses. We've now seen son Edwin's baptism record at Westminster Archives and it identifies that William and Eliza were living on John St (St John St), the same place as brother Thomas so we are confident that William is Thomas and Sarah's son. Edwin's baptism record identifies his father as a 'modeller'; we assume this refers to modelling/design associated with building work but can't be sure.

In addition, the IGI shows a William Henry marrying a Caroline Jones in 1833 in London. We've now seen this marriage record, under 'Estell', in the parish registers at ancestry.co.uk, witnessed by William Jones. He's identified as a bachelor however the IGI does not identify any other William Henry in this time period. We don't have strong evidence, but our guess is that William Henry and Eliza reached some sort of divorce settlement or other agreement after Edwin was born. Then William went on to marry Caroline Jones in London and they set sail for Australia shortly thereafter, as shown on an ancestry.com Unassisted Passenger List of 1835. We know from their emigration papers on ancestry.com that the William who emigrated was a builder.

We also suspect (but can't prove!) that this is the William Henry Estall found guilty of raping an 8-year-old girl in the school that he taught in 1860. The articles in the Australian and New Zealand newspaper archives state that William Henry and his wife (but no name given) were well known for their transgressions before the events of 1860. He was sentenced to ten years hard labour.

Obituaries

Bryan Montague (1921-2004)

Bryan William St Leger Montague grew up in London. He left school at 15 and started training as an auto-mechanic, but also took evening classes in electrical engineering. At the outbreak of the Second World War he volunteered for the Royal Air Force, where he became a "radio-mechanic" attached to a top-secret radar division. He received rather little training in the field, but became so interested in the underlying microwave techniques that he signed up for correspondence courses.

When the war was over, Bryan decided to study physics at the University of London, which accepted him after he had passed the required entrance exams. He graduated in 1951, though by that time he had already become a technical information assistant for the Philips office in London.

After graduation he joined the television research group, working on electron optics and magnetic amplifiers before moving to the linear accelerator group, where he participated in the design and construction of a 15 MeV microtron. His interest in particle accelerators - as well as the challenge of joining a laboratory recently created to rebuild the unity of Europe - led him to apply for a job at CERN.

Bryan came to Switzerland in May 1955 and was attached to the CERN-PS division. His first task was testing high-power amplifier tubes in the linac group, before he was asked to take on the design of the modulator, as the specialist foreseen for this task had died in an accident. The modulator design was completed by 1960, when the PS was successfully commissioned.

Around 1962 Bryan joined - and later led - the RF separator project in the newly formed Accelerator Research division. The goal was to develop a separator for secondary particles above 5 GeV, where electrostatic separation becomes inefficient.

The design was based on ideas of Panofsky and Schnell for transverse separation, but was modified by Bryan to use hybrid modes, which he and Peter Bramham had (re)discovered experimentally when measuring propagation on disc-loaded structures.

From 1965 Bryan also took part in the study for a 300 GeV synchrotron, from which the CERN Super Proton Synchrotron evolved. However, when this project was postponed sine die in 1969, Bryan joined the newly formed Intersecting Storage Rings (ISR) project led by Kjell Johnson. Here Bryan worked first on the design of scrapers and collimators and then took part in commissioning the ISR, using the scrapers to measure the beam profile.

Later he joined the theoretical group whose task was to analyse and improve the ISR performance, and developed a computer code for the automatic measurement of luminosity. In the general studies group, he worked on the design of proton colliders with higher energy and proposed a method of increasing the luminosity of the ISR by reducing the crossing angle to give head-on collisions, using dipoles over the interaction regions to separate the counter-rotating proton beams. He also investigated non-linear coupling resonances caused by space charge - an effect still referred to as "Montague resonance".

Bryan became a member of the Senior Staff Consultative Committee to the Director-General for three years, and during the third year acted as its spokesman. The task of this committee was to represent the interest of the academic staff of CERN. Hence he acted to balance the negative effects of the Abragam Committee, constituted to reduce the cost of CERN so that the UK would not leave the organization.

In 1980 Bryan began work on the Large Electron Positron collider and concentrated on methods to obtain polarized beams in the machine. He developed rotator magnets, and studied Siberian snakes and spin matching. His most original contribution was a very clear description of polarization effects in storage rings using spinor algebra.

He also participated in the search for new methods of the acceleration of particles to even higher energies, and initiated a collaboration with the Rutherford Appleton Laboratory, which had the highest-power lasers in Europe, and Imperial College, London, to perform experiments on the acceleration of electrons with beat-waves created by two laser beams in a plasma.

From its inception in 1985, Bryan participated in the CLIC study at CERN. In this he explored methods for obtaining polarized beams, and suggested the use of the extremely sensitive Hanbury-Brown-Twiss intensity interferometer for the exact alignment of beams, using the synchrotron radiation emitted in bends.

In 1985, the University of London awarded Bryan the degree of Doctor of Science (DSc) for his work on particle accelerators. He gave lectures at several CERN Accelerator Schools and contributed to the book on accelerator physics edited by Herwig Schopper. Even after retirement Bryan continued to work on accelerators, and also contributed to quantum mechanics, pointing out the importance of the usually neglected phase factor of the complex wave function.

In his early eighties, Bryan suffered a severe aneurysm during a holiday trip to Italy, and finally passed away in May 2004.

3-Edward Estall was born in Dec 1771 in Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, was baptised on 15 Dec 1771 in St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, Middlesex, died in 1840 in Limehouse, London, Middlesex aged 69, and was buried on 17 Sep 1840 in St Anne, Limehouse, London, Middlesex.

General Notes: Christening, 15 Dec 1771 St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney, London, England. We saw Edward's baptism record, son of John and Mary of White's Yard, in the St Mary Whitechapel, Stepney register at London Metropolitan Archives. The marriage record for Edward and Mary is in Pallots, under 'Mary Johnston'. But we've seen their marriage certificate in the St Mary register, it clearly says 'Johnson' and the witnesses are John & Margaret Johnson (Mary's parents?). Edward was a bachelor, Mary a spinster. We've now seen Edward's burial record, under 'Eastall', at ancestry.co.uk London, England, Deaths and Burials, 1813-1980. He was 68 years old.

We believe we have the will of this Edward, as it refers to his brothers William and Thomas and his sister Mary. The will also refers to his wife Mary as well as her sister Ann Johnson, a spinster. It was written in 1818, although Edward did not pass away until 1840. The location is Middlesex. The will identifies him as a bricklayer and plasterer.

We believe Edward became an apprentice to his brother George in 1786, per the London Apprenticeship Abstracts 1442-1850:

1786 Estell Edward, son of John, Rosemary Lane (St Botolph Aldgate), Middlesex, tallow chandler, to George Estell, 3 Jan 1786, Plaisterers' Company
